

PRESIDENT HAS A BUSY DAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

NATIVE SONS GREET THE RUSSIA TRYING FOR A TRAINMEN OAKLAND READY TO SEE
CHIEF EXECUTIVE. SECRET DEAL. READY TO STRIKE. PRES. ROOSEVELT.

Presentation Made at the Hall—
Reviews the United States
Troops at the Presidio.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—President Roosevelt arose early this morning and from his windows in the Palace Hotel saw the sun break from a threatening bank of fog before the hour marked for the first event on the program for the day.

GOES WITH MAYOR.

At 9 o'clock he entered his carriage accompanied by Mayor Schmitz and was driven to the Native Sons' Hall. The streets were thronged with people and the President's appearance was greeted by hearty cheering.

At the hall, a hearty welcome was given the nation's chief executive by the assembled sons and daughters of the Golden West, aided by a big delegation of pioneers. Some of these old-timers came to the State before the date of Roosevelt's birth, but all united in doing him honor.

LITTLE FORMALITY.

The President's reception was not marked by much formality and he was evidently impressed by the sincerity of his greeting. He was presented with a souvenir of solid gold, which he accepted with a few words of thanks. Meanwhile, the school children had assembled by thousands on the broad sidewalks of Van Ness avenue. Each boy and girl carried an American flag and they lined the thoroughfares for many blocks.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the President reached the avenue and was driven slowly through the files of children, who cheered wildly and waved their banners as they noted his approving smile.

AT THE PRESIDIO.

The President then proceeded to the Presidio military reservation, facing the Golden Gate, where he reviewed the United States troops stationed at this post. The soldiers were under command of Major General MacArthur and their appearance as well as the military evolutions skillfully performed for his inspection, elicited his praise.

IN THE PARK.

From the Presidio, through Golden Gate Park to the Cliff House on the bluff at the southern side of the entrance to San Francisco harbor, the Presidential party was taken. Here lunch was served, after which the President returned through the park to his Baker street entrance, where he broke ground for a monument to the late President McKinley, to be erected by the citizens of San Francisco veterans from the Mexican, Civil and Spanish wars here assembled and were especially referred to in the President's address.

THIS EVENING.

This evening President Roosevelt will be escorted by a squadron of cavalry to the Mechanics' pavilion, where he is to deliver an address. On the way he will review the pupils of the evening schools, who will be lined along Market street.

NATIVE SONS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—At Native Sons' Hall a throng had assembled at an early hour to witness the presentation of the golden replica of Douglas Tilden's statue, the "Bear Hunt," to the President. In the gathering were bent and tottering veterans of the Mexican war, grizzled pioneers and the representatives of their descendants in the Native Sons and Daughters.

The arrival of the Presidential party was the signal for an enthusiastic outburst. James D. Phelan was chairman and he first introduced Henry D. Russ, one of the pioneers, who gave President Roosevelt welcome and God speed. Colonel Stuart, president of the Mexican Veterans, said his associates welcomed the nation's chief "with trembling hands, but warm hearts," and presented him with a certificate of membership.

BELOVED IN STATE.

H. R. McNoble, Grand President of the Native Sons, then spoke very briefly, saying the President was beloved in California, not only because of his office, but because he represented that peculiar and beautiful phase of life which was so typical of the far West.

GOLD STATUE.

Eliza D. Keith, president of the Native Daughters, presented the President with a beautiful basket of poppies.

Chairman Phelan then presented President Roosevelt with the gold statue.

The President, after expressing his gratitude, caused laughter by remarking that he would abandon bear-hunting, but the fact confronted him that a man could be President of the United States, and still be a bear-hunter.

He said the days of the pioneers had gone, but the necessity for pioneer virtues remained.

The duty of each generation which appreciated the work of their fathers was to keep alive the meaning of that work as a spur to our fresh efforts. There is need for virtues which do not wait for heroic times, but which are exercised day in and day out.

SAYS GOOD LUCK.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—After his reception at the California Press Club yesterday, during which he was notified that he had been elected a life member, President Roosevelt inscribed the following on the records of the organization: "Good luck always to the San Francisco Press Club from its member, Theodore Roosevelt, May 13, 1908."

THE CZAR OF RUSSIA.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 13.—Mail advices from the Orient state that when it was learned that Russia was endeavoring to secure a secret treaty with China, insuring Russian Dominion in Manchuria, the British and Japanese ministers addressed a joint note to Prince Ching to the effect that further delay by Russia in evacuating Manchuria would necessitate the two countries taking measures to expedite the evacuation. The joint note of the two ministers further stated that their governments would not approve of any agreement regarding the administration of Manchuria prejudicial to their interests.

Great Northern Road
Will Have Much Trouble.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 13.—That the Great Northern trainmen almost completed plans for a strike came out in today's conference with the Twin City business men. Mr. Garretson assured the business men that nothing would be done up to 6 o'clock, but as to what might happen at any time after that hour he could make no promises.

The grand officers, he said, were powerless to arrest the progress of certain arrangements which were "in process of consummation," unless good reasons were given for doing so.

Mr. Newman, in the course of his remarks, made a significant allusion which he closed abruptly without finishing his sentence.

"We cannot delay weapons in our hand," he said. "These men are coming, and they are raising—" Here he changed the subject hastily.

It is further known that orders are out for a strike if no offer of concessions by the company is received by the trainmen's committee before 6 o'clock.

Committee Has Completed all Arrangements for the Reception of the Nation's Chief.

The Committee of Arrangements wishes it understood that the original program of the reception to be extended to President Roosevelt will be carried out to the letter, with the exception that the stop of the Presidential party at the High School will be curtailed to ten minutes. This will afford the President time to speak to the crowd.

The introductions, addresses of welcome and handshaking will all be cut out.

Promptly at 1 o'clock or a little before the President will join the Oakland Reception Committee at the head of Telegraph Avenue. At 1:20 o'clock sharp the Presidential car will arrive at Fourteenth and Franklin. There the original line of parade will be taken up and followed without deviation. There will be 600 blue jackets from the fleet in the parade. The only change in the program will be the shortened stay at the High School.

BEGINS HIS JOURNEY.

The President will leave Berkeley tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. He will there take the car "Oakland" and begin his journey by way of Telegraph avenue to this city. He is expected to arrive at Fourteenth and Franklin streets by 1:20 o'clock and there the entire party will take carriages. The Presidential car will be turned down Fourteenth street and will stop in front of the Presbyterian church, the intersection mentioned. Here under a beautifully-decorated arch, erected by the Red Cross Ladies he will leave the car and become the guest of this city and with the entire Presidential party will be conducted to carriages through the prettiest portion of the city to the High School building where he will make a short address. He is expected to leave Oakland at 3:30 o'clock when he will be conducted down Broadway to the wharf where he will go on board the torpedo boat destroyer Paul Jones and go to Mare Island Navy Yard.

FORMATION OF PARADE.

The parade will form when the President leaves his car and will comprise the following:

OLD SOLDIERS MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Annual Encampment of the Department is Now in Session
Across the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The thirty-seventh encampment of the department of California and Nevada G. A. R. was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning by Department Commander Hawley.

The reports of the department commander and other officers showed the department to be in splendid condition as to its financial standing and growth. The coming thirty-eighth national encampment was touched upon, creating much enthusiasm among the four hundred delegates present.

The assistant adjutant and quartermaster general's report showed that on December 31, 1907, there were 95 posts

NO CHILD WORK IN MINES.

PENNYPACKER SIGNS ONE BILL BUT VETOES THREE OTHERS.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 13.—Governor Pennypacker today signed the Child-Labor bill and vetoed the other three miners' bills. The child-labor bill makes it unlawful to employ children under sixteen years of age in and about the mines. The three bills vetoed were the eight-hour bill, the bill providing for the payment for coal mined by the ton of 2,240 pounds, and the mine-inspection bill.

BIDS FOR TRANSPORT SERVICE.

MEALLESS PEOPLE AT DENVER.

NEW MOVE IN MURDER CASE.

Companies do not seem to be fighting for business.

SEATTLE, May 13.—But two bids for the transport service were submitted today. They were the bids of the Boston Steamship Company and M. C. Harrison and Company of San Francisco. The Boston Steamship Company offered what was practically the same bid as the company made last fall and under which it is now carrying a portion of the army transportation from this port. Practically the only difference is in the price which the company offers to transport troops. The bid last fall was conditioned on the government giving the company 80 percent of the business and the rates offered for troops under that condition ran from $25 to $40. The new bid has no similar condition, but offers to carry troops at the same rates as for cargo, ranging from $30 to $50 with subsistence, and from $30 to $40 without subsistence. The substance which the company agrees to supply is the regular army barracks rations. The bid of M. C. Harrison and Company was for transporting coal, lumber and supplies from Portland to Manila by sailing vessels, the bid stating that the company has four sailing schooners available for the service.

PRESIDENT JOINS PRESS-CLUB.

President Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to become an honorary member of the Oakland Press Club. In response to a telegram sent on May 6th, President Roosevelt, through his private secretary, William Loeb Jr., has sent the following letter of acceptance of honorary membership to C. E. Wilson, president of the Oakland Press Club: "White House, Washington, Santa Cruz, Cal., May 11, 1903.—My Dear Sir: Your telegram of the 6th instant has been received, and the President requests me to thank you, and through you the members of the Oakland Press Club, for the compliment paid him by the recent action of your organization. He accepts with pleasure the honorary membership tendered him. Very truly yours, 'WILLIAM LOEB JR., Secretary to the President. CLARENCE WILSON, President, Oakland Press Club, Oakland, California.' The letter will be framed and placed in the rooms of the Press Club. An endeavor will also be made to secure the signature of President Roosevelt as an honorary member of the club.

SAVED FROM WRECK OF VERA CRUZ III.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The Treasury Department has received a dispatch from Newburn, N. C., announcing the arrival there of the emigrants taken from the wrecked barkentine Vera Cruz III. A telegram from Boston announces that a firm at New Bedford, to whom the ship is said to be consigned, denies to be the consignee and denies all responsibility for the vessel.

The Store with Brisk Business.

DENVER, Colo., May 13.—Two hundred cooks, 600 waiters, 500 butchers and 150 bakers were called out on strike this morning by the Pure Foods' Council. Nearly all the restaurants in the city are closed. The butchers' walk-out included those employed at the stock-yards and many of the meat markets. The union bakers were called out from not only the houses deemed unfair, but also those against which labor has no grievance. Tonight the retail clerks and international stationary engineers held a meeting to vote on the question of a joint strike. The cause of the trouble is the refusal of various bakeries and groceries to make contracts with the unions.

NEW DEAL FOR MACHINISTS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 13.—The International Association of Machinists today took decisive action leading to a straight nine hour day in place of a 51 or 55 hour week, which rule applies in many of the shops throughout the country, based on a ten hour day for five days, and the additional four or five hours on Sunday. The convention, voted to discourage the plan of hours which now obtains and all new arrangements or contracts must conform to the straight nine hour day. It was also decided unanimously to abolish the system of piece work commencing with July 1, 1904.

MURDER TRIAL IN KENTUCKY.

MAISONVILLE, Ky., May 13.—The case of the commonwealth against B. Lindell, Wade McIntosh and others, charged with the killing of union miners at Boxtown about two years ago, has been called for trial in the Hopkins circuit court here and both sides announce themselves ready. Judge J. L. Julian of Frankfort has been appointed by Governor Beckham to try the case. He arrived here yesterday and is now on the bench. On account of the prominence of the case it is a difficult matter to secure a jury. The trial has been ordered to summon 150 men from other portions of the county to select a jury. There are about 150 witnesses to be heard.

LABORER RUNS AMUCK IN LODGING HOUSE.

R. J. Desmond, a laborer, was arrested today in the Oakland lodging house at 473 Seventh street with a long knife in his hand with which he was clashing the guests about the halls. He was taken into custody by Patrolman Hill, who had been summoned by the landlady. As he was leaving in the patrol wagon, Desmond declared to the landlady that he would return and kill her. He was booked at the City Prison on a charge of disturbing the peace and also was charged with drunkenness.

HAYWARDS MAN GETS AN OFFICE.

WOODLAND, Cal., May 13.—The Grand Lodge of the order of Herman Sons adjourned at noon today, after having finished the election of grand officers, which resulted as follows: Grand guide, C. R. Lodge, San Diego; grand inside guard, J. H. Gurnick, Napu; grand outside watchman, W. Hansen, San Francisco; grand scribe, H. R. Rederberg, Hayward; grand treasurer, H. H. Henry, Willamette, San Francisco. This afternoon the delegates were taken for a drive through the adjacent country.

SHAMROCK'S FEAR STORMY WEATHER.

GO'ROCK, May 13.—A storm rendered it impossible this morning to start the proposed fifty-mile race between the Shamrocks from here around the channel fleet of Lambias, Isle of Arrat, for a prize of $500. The yachts, however, will go out this afternoon if the weather clears.

PEMBROKESHIRE HAS GONE ASHORE.

SHANGHAI, May 13.—The British steamer Pembroke, which sailed from here yesterday for New York, is ashore on the North Saddle rocks. Lighters and steam pumps have been sent to her assistance.

THROWING WATER ON THE PUBLIC STREETS.

William Munzel, a janitor was arrested this morning for violating the city ordinance which prohibits the throwing of refuse water in the streets or gutters. He was taken into custody at Thirteenth and Washington streets by Policeman Murray. In the Police Court he pleaded not guilty and will come up for trial next Friday.

Authorities Believe They Now Have a New Clew.

LORAIN, Ohio, May 13.—The most important move made by the authorities in the Reichlin case since the release of Rev. Ferdinand Walser was made today when Noah Spradling, the bartender who sold the gallon of whiskey to Cashier Reichlin, directly after the murder was taken to police headquarters by detectives. Spradling is said to have divulged important information regarding the murder and will be held as a witness for the grand jury under heavy bail.

TRUNKLESS HEADS ON FETTER WATER SUIT IS ABOUT ENDED.

MADRID, May 13.—A dispatch from Ceuta, Morocco, announces that the tribunes who attacked Tetuan Monday were repulsed. They stubbornly fought their way through the suburbs to the foot of the walls, but the Imperial troops eventually regained their lost positions and drove off the rebels with heavy losses on both sides. A later dispatch from Ceuta says a courier who has arrived there by sea from Tetuan states that the battle was suspended in order to allow the opposing forces to bury their dead, numbering 300. Many heads are displayed on the walls of Tetuan, which still has three days' supply of ammunition. Advice from Tangier announce that the Imperial forces have routed the rebel mountaineers at Fez, inflicting great losses on the enemy.

WANTS TO HAVE MORE STOCK.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The Bank of California has taken another step in its policy of active business expansion by calling a meeting of its stockholders to vote upon a proposition to increase the capital stock. The meeting will be held on July 15. It is proposed to increase the capital from its present amount of $2,000,000, divided into 20,000 shares of the par value of $100 each, to $3,000,000, composed of 30,000 shares of the same par value.

PICK POCKETS AT WORK.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Numerous pickpockets were at work in the crowds that thronged the streets yesterday afternoon and evening and the result has been the filing of many complaints with the police. Several persons were relieved of watches or small amounts of money, but thus far no robbery involving the loss of a large sum is reported.

TROUBLE FEARED ON LABOR DAY.

ROSTOFF ON THE DON, Russia, May 13.—The Social Democrats are doing their utmost to co-operate in starting disturbances on Labor Day, tomorrow. The agitators are alleged to possess arms and dynamite. The authorities have posted placards announcing that stringent measures will be adopted for the preservation of order.

WIDOW GETS ESTATE OF LATE HUSBAND.

The estate of Cornelius Nolan, who died of injuries received by being struck by a local train at Thirteenth and Webster streets a few weeks ago, has been set apart to his widow, Mrs. Julia Nolan. The estate consists of a home on Twenty-seventh street, near West, and some personal property, all valued at $1,342. Nolan had been employed by Gladding, McBean & Co. as a teamster for twenty years.

CHARGE OF INSANITY WAS NOT SUSTAINED.

Alfred Cronk, aged 60 years, was examined today by the Lunacy Commissioners but discharged, it being determined that he was merely weak-minded and not insane. Cronk was arrested a few days ago because he was wandering about the streets in an aimless manner. His mind is almost a total blank. He could not tell his name, age or residence, and his talk was incoherent. He was formerly a teamster at Millvale.

LIEUTENANT CLARK IS DEAD.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 13.—First Lieutenant William Clark, who was injured at the Diamond Mills fire last night, died today. The loss is estimated at $200,000 partly covered by insurance.

BEATEN TO DEATH WITH HOLY BOOK.

OLD MAN DIES OF A BROKEN HEART.

TRIED TO CAST OUT DEVILS AND HE COULD NOT LIVE AFTER KILLED THE PA-TIENT. HELPMEET PASSED AWAY.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) HONOLULU, May 6.—Via San Francisco, May 13.—Today W. J. Keeney, of the Circuit Court in his charge to the Grand Jury of the May term, expressed strong disapproval of the Grand Jury system as cumbersome and full of disadvantages and absurdities.

BEATEN TO DEATH. A case of a native Hawaiian who was beaten to death with a Bible in the hands of a Kahuana, or native doctor, is reported from the island of Hawaii. The victim was ill in bed, and after being treated by a regular physician, sent for a Kahuana, having more faith in the native "medicine man." The Kahuana declared that the patient was possessed by devils and proceeded to cast them out by beating him over the head with a Bible. The wife of the sick man was also induced to do some beating and then the Kahuana resumed operations. The man died as a result of the beatings. The Kahuana was arrested and has been held in $500 bonds for manslaughter.

BRITISH CRUISER. The stay of the British cruiser Amphitrite in Honolulu harbor has been marked by a steady series of contests in all kinds of sports between the crew on the vessel and teams on shore. At cricket and football the Britishers were worsted, but in the various athletic events the Honolulu police team defeated the British team with rifles, though with revolvers the seamen won.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 13.—Additional details of the Kischeneff massacre of Jews are printed here daily. The correspondents give the number of victims thus far buried in the Jewish cemeteries at forty-four and say that eighty-four persons seriously wounded are still in the Jewish hospital. The horrors reported scarcely bear repetition. In one instance spikes were driven through a woman's head in the floor and cases of bodily mutilation have been authentically reported. About 800 to 1000 persons were arrested, an energetic official having been sent from Odessa to deal with the situation. The apathy of the local authorities during the two days of rapine and murder appears to have been fully established.

STORY DENIED. ST. PETERSBURG, May 13.—The report published in the United States that a massacre of Jews, similar to the one which took place recently at Kischeneff, capital of Bessarabia, had occurred at Tiraspol, seven miles from Kischeneff, is officially denied and is universally discredited.

HITCH IN POOL CASES. There is a hitch in the arrangements whereby the cigar dealers who were arrested for violating the ordinance which prohibits the selling of pools on horse races were to forfeit their bail money in the Police Court. Attorney Erick, representing the pool sellers, deposited $400 with the Clerk of the Police Court to be applied as bail money—$175.50 to be forfeited in each case. Already several of the cases have come up before Police Judge Smith and the bail money has been forfeited. But today, however, the case of William McCarty was called and it developed that he had not made arrangements to forfeit bail and was not among those that were covered by the $400. At the same time his case was called, the cases of John Parker, A. S. Dugan and William Berovich were called, they being covered by the $400 deposit. "All will have to be tried," said Police Judge Smith. So the cases of Parker, Dugan and Berovich were continued till tomorrow for trial, while the case of McCarty went over to July to be heard before a jury.

It is understood that when McCarty was asked to come into the combine to deposit $400 forfeit money, he refused, being confident that he could clear himself of the charge against him. So, under the ruling of Judge Smith, the remaining cases may have to be tried unless McCarty consents to deposit forfeit money.

SUES RAILROAD FOR DAMAGES. Frank S. Marshall, aged 18 years, today brought suit through his guardian Edward Howland to recover $5000 damages from the Southern Pacific Company. Marshall was injured in a collision on April 6th last. He was driving a delivery wagon at Front and West streets. A string of box cars obstructed his view of the railroad tracks. As he was driving across the tracks his wagon was struck by the Alameda local train.

The wagon was hurled many feet and Marshall was thrown out violently. He hit on his head on one of the rails and was rendered unconscious for several minutes. Marshall claims he was permanently injured by the accident and that he has expended $100 for medical services. He alleges that the employees of the company were negligent in failing to ring a bell or blow a whistle as the train approached the crossing. He alleges there was further negligence in permitting the view of the crossing to be obstructed by the string of box cars.

HORSE THIEVES WILL BE SENT TO SEA.

George Mate, Benny Boynton and Albert Hannover, the three youths charged with grand larceny, having been arrested with three horses in their possession which were stolen from a riding academy, will not have to go to prison for their alleged crime, for arrangements have been made whereby they will be sent to South Africa on a sailing vessel. The three cases were called in the Police Court this morning. It was stated that arrangements were being made to ship them away, so their cases were continued until May 20th by which time it is expected that they will be well on their way to sea.

John R. Dennis, whose wife, Rosina B. Dennis, passed away a week ago today at the residence of Mrs. L. Lorenzen, 1540 West street, died today at the same place. His wife was buried last Sunday, after an illness of but three days, and his grieving over her death is said to have caused his death today. His wife was 73 and he is 83 years of age. The date of the funeral has not yet been set.

FORTY-FOUR JEWS SLAIN

ST. PETERSBURG, May 13.—Additional details of the Kischeneff massacre of Jews are printed here daily. The correspondents give the number of victims thus far buried in the Jewish cemeteries at forty-four and say that eighty-four persons seriously wounded are still in the Jewish hospital. The horrors reported scarcely bear repetition. In one instance spikes were driven through a woman's head in the floor and cases of bodily mutilation have been authentically reported. About 800 to 1000 persons were arrested, an energetic official having been sent from Odessa to deal with the situation. The apathy of the local authorities during the two days of rapine and murder appears to have been fully established.

STORY DENIED. ST. PETERSBURG, May 13.—The report published in the United States that a massacre of Jews, similar to the one which took place recently at Kischeneff, capital of Bessarabia, had occurred at Tiraspol, seven miles from Kischeneff, is officially denied and is universally discredited.

HITCH IN POOL CASES. There is a hitch in the arrangements whereby the cigar dealers who were arrested for violating the ordinance which prohibits the selling of pools on horse races were to forfeit their bail money in the Police Court. Attorney Erick, representing the pool sellers, deposited $400 with the Clerk of the Police Court to be applied as bail money—$175.50 to be forfeited in each case. Already several of the cases have come up before Police Judge Smith and the bail money has been forfeited. But today, however, the case of William McCarty was called and it developed that he had not made arrangements to forfeit bail and was not among those that were covered by the $400. At the same time his case was called, the cases of John Parker, A. S. Dugan and William Berovich were called, they being covered by the $400 deposit. "All will have to be tried," said Police Judge Smith. So the cases of Parker, Dugan and Berovich were continued till tomorrow for trial, while the case of McCarty went over to July to be heard before a jury.

It is understood that when McCarty was asked to come into the combine to deposit $400 forfeit money, he refused, being confident that he could clear himself of the charge against him. So, under the ruling of Judge Smith, the remaining cases may have to be tried unless McCarty consents to deposit forfeit money.

SUES RAILROAD FOR DAMAGES. Frank S. Marshall, aged 18 years, today brought suit through his guardian Edward Howland to recover $5000 damages from the Southern Pacific Company. Marshall was injured in a collision on April 6th last. He was driving a delivery wagon at Front and West streets. A string of box cars obstructed his view of the railroad tracks. As he was driving across the tracks his wagon was struck by the Alameda local train.

The wagon was hurled many feet and Marshall was thrown out violently. He hit on his head on one of the rails and was rendered unconscious for several minutes. Marshall claims he was permanently injured by the accident and that he has expended $100 for medical services. He alleges that the employees of the company were negligent in failing to ring a bell or blow a whistle as the train approached the crossing. He alleges there was further negligence in permitting the view of the crossing to be obstructed by the string of box cars.

BOYS THE CAUSE OF A COLLISION.

NEW YORK, May 13.—In a collision between a car and a street car on Second avenue, due to the displacement of a switch, ten or twelve passengers were more or less badly injured. The police say that mischievous boys were responsible for the collision.

DEFENDANT FILES A COUNTER-CLAIM.

S. A. Selover today filed an answer in the case of the estate of Laura V. Smoot, as executor of the estate of Laura V. Smoot, to foreclose a mortgage against F. A. Berlin and others. Selover says he has a judgment against Berlin for $204 and he wants this paid after the claim of the plaintiff is satisfied.

LONDON, May 13.—The Commonwealth, the largest battleship afloat, was launched at Govan, on the Clyde, today. She is the first vessel of the British navy to have her ten-inch guns protected by an extended barbettes. Instead of casemates, the other armament consists of four 12-inch guns, four 9.2-inch guns and twenty-four small guns. The new battleship's speed is to be 18.5 knots per hour, and she will carry a crew of 755 men. The Commonwealth is of 16,350 tons displacement and her engines are to be of 18,000 horse power.

OAKLAND READY TO SEE TWO MILES OF GOLD LEAF.

(Continued From Page 1.) burden tomorrow. It was specially designed by Assistant Manager and Chief Engineer J. Q. Brown, and cost in the neighborhood of $2500. It has over two miles of gold leaf in its decorations. The trolley, or the long arm by which it reaches the current, is covered with gold. The wheels are covered in the same manner. Instead of the usual seats on the outside of the car, this space is carpeted and furnished like a drawing-room. The car is 40 feet in length and of standard gauge. It was brought out of the paint shops of the Oakland Transit Consolidated at noon today and was brought down town to the great store of Walter S. Mackay & Co., 418-424 Fourteenth street, opposite the Macdonough Theater, to receive the furniture and upholstery specially designed for it. The carpets are of the richest texture, the upholstery is of rich and the cushion work is so elastic as to afford most restful repose. This work was done in a most artistic manner by the well-known emporium of carpets, furniture and curtains, opposite the Macdonough.

DECORATIONS. The work of decorating the arch at the Presbyterian Church and the stand and pillars kept a large number of ladies busy from early this morning, and it will be well on to the time of the arrival of the President before everything will be in readiness. In the basement of the Presbyterian Church, ladies of the Red Cross Society were making a floral representation of their world-famous emblem. The floral wreaths and festooning for the triumphal arch.

At the Grand Army headquarters, the ladies of the Ebell Society were engaged in similar work for the decoration of the grand stand at the high school building. With the school house as a background and the speakers facing the grounds surrounding Chabot Observatory, this makes an ideal amphitheater.

THE GRAND STAND. The grand stand is so constructed as to command the entire block facing Eleventh street at this point. Upon it will be seated to seat 750 people. These will be for the President's party and invited guests. The press stand is situated immediately in front of and beneath the speakers' desk.

TORPEDO DESTROYER PAUL JONES. After leaving the high school building, the President will be escorted to the foot of Broadway, where he will board the torpedo-boat destroyer Paul Jones. It is the largest boat of its kind owned by the United States. The Paul Jones will arrive at the Broadway wharf at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and will wait there until the President's arrival at 3:30 o'clock for Mare Island. This will give the people of Oakland an opportunity to see the peculiar craft at short range.

AN INJUNCTION FOR STRIKERS.

SPRINGFIELD, Illinois, May 13.—Mr. Leek of the firm of Landsen & Leek, Cairo, Illinois, this afternoon secured from Judge Humphrey, in the United States Circuit Court, for the Mobile & Ohio Railroad, an injunction restraining R. P. Clark and other striking switchmen, yardmen and other employees of the road from interfering with the operation of the road by stopping trains, picketing, or any other means in large numbers, or interfering in any other manner.

NOT ATTENDED BY A PHYSICIAN.

Mrs. Mary Sedinger, a widow, 55 years of age, died at noon today at her residence, 555 Fortieth street. She had been ill for two days and was not attended by a physician. Father Serda of the Church of the Sacred Heart and several of the neighbors have been administering to her wants, but they did not deem her illness such as required the attendance of a physician. She lived alone.

FRENCH MURDERER IS ARRESTED.

GLASGOW, May 13.—Paul Martin, a deserter from the French army, was arrested here today charged with the murder in Paris of Madame de Brienne, a well-known person, who went to that city from America, and who was recently found strangled in her room.

There were three bidders, the Pacific Mail, the Occidental and Oriental and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Steamship Companies. Their bids were identical, being as follows: Cabin passengers, $125; soldiers, $30; freight, $4.25 per ton.

TOUCHED A LIVE WIRE AND FALLS TO GROUND.

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—William Slater, an electric lineman in the employ of the Electrical Engineering and Supply Company, met with a terrible accident this morning on Second street, just north of J. He was engaged in the work of stringing wires to illuminate Second street when President Roosevelt comes to town. He touched a live wire and received such a severe shock that he was thrown to the ground from a pole a distance of about 25 feet. He received a bad cut on the back of the head and was seriously injured in the back. The injured man was taken to a private hospital for treatment.

SHE TURNED ON THE GAS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Mrs. Nora Hickey of Santa Rosa, who came to this city yesterday to witness the President's arrival, was found dead in bed this morning at the residence of her sister-in-law on Pacific street. She had evidently been asphyxiated on a gas jet accidentally turned on.

THIEF WORKS WELB WHILE MAN SLEEPS.

While George Orr was soundly slumbering last night in his home on Lake Shore avenue, a burglar entered his residence and, after searching the rooms, made away with the sleeping man's clothes which was lying on a chair in his bedroom. The thief then made his way out the front door taking with him Mr. Orr's overcoat and straw hat. "We expect to have a great deal of trouble with house-breakers while President Roosevelt is visiting here," said Chief of Police Hodgkins, "for while the people are out viewing the guest, the thieves will visit their homes. We do not expect to have much trouble with pickpockets and sneak thieves."

MAJOR J. P. DUNN GOES EAST.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION IN BOSTON OF THE MILITARY SURGEONS OF U. S. A.

The following self-explanatory order has been received by Dr. J. P. Dunn of this city:

"State of California, Adjutant General's Office, Sacramento, May 12, 1903.—Special Orders, No. 2: Major James P. Dunn, Sanitary Corps, N. G. C., is hereby detailed for special duty in connection with the meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, at Boston, Massachusetts, on May 19, 1903, and he will proceed to that point and report his presence to the President of the Association."

"Major Dunn will attend the sessions of the Convention, and upon his return will make a detailed report to this office relating to recommendations that may have been presented or adopted by said convention for the improvement of the Medical Department of the National Guard organization."

"By order of the Commander-in-Chief,"

"Official: N. S. BANGHAM, Adjutant General."

In accordance with the above order, Dr. J. P. Dunn will leave the city for Boston tomorrow morning where he will attend the convention in question which will be held on the 19th, 20th, and 21st of this month.

There will be a large attendance of surgical gentlemen who are distinguished in their profession both in civil and military life because they will comprise medical officers of the Army and Navy, National Guard, and Marine Hospital service.

The doctor will represent the National Guard of the State of California. He occupies the position of Chief Surgeon, with rank of Major Fifth Regiment of Infantry, N. G. C. As a member of the service, for a number of years, Dr. Dunn has displayed the greatest interest in the Medical and Surgical Corps, a fact which has been appreciated by the members of the command to whom he has ministered, as also by the officers of the head of the organization. The doctor will be absent about two weeks and during his absence, his duties in the N. G. C. will be performed by Dr. R. B. Williams, surgeon, with rank of Captain of the Second Battalion of the Fifth Infantry.

DEVLIN CONVICTED ON TWO CHARGES.

Robert J. Devlin was convicted last evening by a jury on a charge of burglary notwithstanding that he had already pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny and was sentenced to six months in the County Jail for the same offense. It had been hoped by him, that by pleading guilty to a charge of petit larceny he would escape prosecution on a more serious charge but his trial and conviction were somewhat in the nature of an unpleasant awakening.

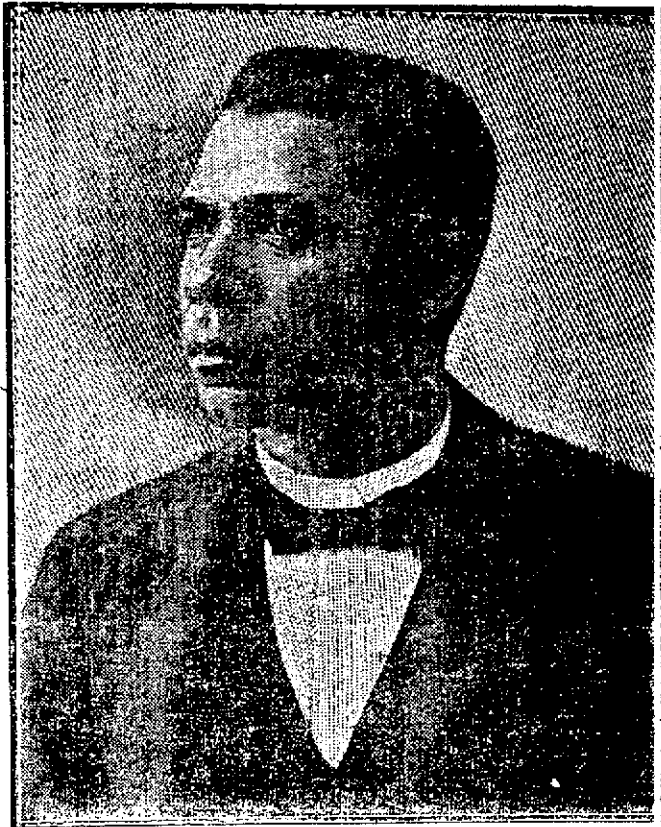

Devlin, with a man by the name of Audet, was arrested for stealing one thousand pounds of copper wire from the Oakland Transit Consolidated. His partner in crime pleaded not guilty and was tried and found guilty and sentenced to two years at Folsom.

During Audet's trial the evidence brought out was deemed sufficiently strong to convict Devlin of a more serious offense and he was charged with burglary as well as the larceny. He had previously pleaded guilty to and was found guilty. His attorney rested his case on the plea of once in jeopardy but the judge held that he was being tried for a separate offense and that the one he pleaded guilty to and overruled the motion of the attorney and allowed the case to proceed.

HAS HAND CAUGHT IN MACHINERY.

Walter Madsen, aged 19 years, residing at 1314 Market street, had his right hand caught in some machinery at the Oakland Creamery. The middle finger was badly crushed. It required seven stitches to close the wound.

WILL BOOKER WASHINGTON GET A POST.

People who condemn the President's friendly attitude towards the colored race, or rather its practical manifestation, are wondering if Roosevelt will signify his friendship for Booker T. Washington, who has more than once been his guest at the White House, by offering the learned negro an important post in the near future. Above is the latest photograph of Mr. Washington, who is just now prominently in the news.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

MISS OLNEY AND LOUIS BART-LETT WILL SOON MARRY.

The wedding of Miss Mary Olney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olney, and Louis de F. Bartlett, will be solemnized on Wednesday, June 3, the ceremony to be performed by Rev. Charles R. Brown of the First Congregational Church. The marriage will take place at the bride's home on Prospect street. Miss Ethel Olney will be her sister's only attendant, and the groom will be supported by Thomas Olney.

Both Miss Olney and Mr. Bartlett are well known. Miss Olney having made her home here always. She was a graduate of the University of California with the class of '95. She is a member of one of the most prominent girls' fraternities and has a large circle of friends. The Olney family is one of the oldest and best known in Oakland. Mr. Bartlett is a member of the law firm of Bartlett & Ward, in San Francisco, and was also a graduate of the State University with the class of '93. His home is across the bay, and there the young people will reside.

INFORMAL CARD PARTY.

Mrs. Frank Shay was the hostess on Thursday at an informal card party given in honor of her niece, Mrs. W. H. Huber. Assisting Mrs. Shay was her daughter, Miss Elva, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. McKinley, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Huber, and Mrs. Frank Shay, Mr. and Mrs. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. Shanklin, Beach Dean, Miss Shay, Mrs. Huber and Mrs. A. Patti.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the residence of Mrs. Wallace on Salem street last evening. The occasion was the birthday of a young girl, who was present were: Misses Ethel Wallace, Edna Martin, Jessie Martin, Annie Christ, Seattle Rasmussen, Lena Seward, Gertrude Chappell and Edna Pendleton. Messrs. Harry Goldspring, Charlie Sandhead, Hugh Bonhead, William Real, Alfred Wallace, Jack Sylvia and Duke Madden.

BIRTHDAY AND FAREWELL.

Maple Hall was the scene yesterday of a very pretty children's party, given in honor of Master Robbie Duncan's sixth birthday. The party was also in the nature of a farewell to his friends, as Mrs. Duncan, Robbie's mother, is about to leave with the little boy and his sister, Floessie, for a six-months' trip to Scotland.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent by the little folks in dancing, after which they sat down to an elaborate birthday dinner. The hall and table had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink silk streamers and maiden-hair fern. The children carried away as souvenirs of the afternoon little dress suit cases filled with bon-bons. During the afternoon there was fancy dancing by Vera Beaul, Hope Mathews and Miss Floessie Duncan.

The following children were present: Marguerite Carpenter, Kathleen Carpenter, Carmen Ghirardelli, Bessie Dargie, Leslie Miller, Mignon Wilson, Ruth Vincent, Ruth Burdard, Bernice Collins, Rosalie Ogden, Hope Mathews, Alice Rowley, Dottie Egbert, Myra Hall, Doris Borneman, Bessie Broadwell, Ernie Patey, George Sneathens, Vera Beaul, Emily Gray, Robbie Miller, Don McChure, Allen Standish, Dick McGure, Frank Ogden, Frank Harrison, Cleve Harmon, Willie Sneathens, Harold Williams, Dalila Thomson, Robbie Duncan, Craig Ward, Mal Dargie, Carlton Wynnes and Beverly Carlson.

WOMAN WINS THE MEDAL.

TO MARY EDITH MCGREW GOES HONOR FOR SCHOLARSHIP.

BERKELEY, May 12.—To a woman student was given the class medal by the Board of Regents yesterday, for the best scholarship among the students of the graduating class. Miss Mary Edith McGrew is the young lady upon whom the honor has been conferred.

Miss McGrew is one of the few girls upon whom this highest of university honors has fallen and the medal comes back through her, to the classical department from the engineering colleges where it has been won in the past two years. It is noteworthy that the three students of highest standing in the graduating class this year are members of the College of Letters and that the two highest are women. Next to Miss McGrew in scholarship, and all three standing very closely together, are Miss Schone Kurlandzik and Alfred B. Weller.

All through her university career Miss McGrew has made a brilliant record. As college work is measured she completed 150 units, or twenty-five more than is necessary for graduation, and of the 125 units required almost the full amount received the rank of first grade. She specialized in Greek, Latin and mathematics. Miss McGrew was interested in various activities. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority and was president of the Woman's Field Club. At the beginning of the year just closed she was elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa Society, an honor which is granted solely for scholarship. Miss McGrew is the daughter of G. H. G. McGrew of 2647 Hillgass avenue. She was prepared for the college in the Cambridge Latin School at Cambridge, Mass., where she graduated at the head of her class.

DEBATE ON LABOR IN NEW YORK.

HAVEMEYER TELLS WHAT KIND OF DISCUSSION HE WANTS TO TAKE PLACE.

NEW YORK, May 13.—At an conference between John C. Havemeyer of Yonkers and the representative of the local branch of the American Federation of Labor the details in reference to the public discussion of labor questions were arranged. Mr. Havemeyer says he does not propose to be drawn into a discussion with any single labor union. The questions to be determined are: "First—Shall employers be permitted to conduct a lawful business in a lawful way without the dictation of walking delegates from irresponsible and lawless unions?" "Second—Shall employees who refuse to join a labor union be permitted to earn support for themselves and families by honest labor?" These questions will be divided into about twenty sub-divisions. Owing to what he considers a misunderstanding of his invitation, Mr. Havemeyer has sent a reply to the letter of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of this city, saying they have mistaken the character of his invitation in two respects. He says: "In the first place, I did not propose a debate or discussion. The meeting is solely that the trades unions of Yonkers may have an opportunity of presenting their side of the question. "In the second place the invitation is to all of the unions and not to any single one which may be disposed to accept. "I do not wish to be technical, and will say that if the carpenters, masons and plumbers were to accept I should be satisfied. To secure a better understanding and prevent delay permit me to make a more definite statement regarding the proposed meeting: "First, it will be presided over by men of undoubted character and fairness, subject, if desired, to the approval of a committee of unions. Second, there would be the same freedom as in a political or other meeting."

SPORTS

J. EDWARD WILL PLAY ACTOR AGAIN.

HAS NO CHANCE TO GET A RETURN MATCH WITH O'KEEFE.

It is beginning to dawn on J. Edward Britt that Jack O'Keefe is not very anxious for a return match with him at Butte in June.

O'Keefe has been very loud in his professions and his manager, Sie Hart, has been rushing into print almost daily in Chicago about his desire to match the Chicagoan for another go with Britt, but when it comes down to business and a matter of putting on a cold cash forfeit, they are not so prompt.

Britt has sent a number of telegrams to Hart regarding the proposed return match and each time the latter finds some excuse for not putting his forfeit, although Britt has his money ready for posting at a moment's notice.

Britt received a telegram yesterday from a friend in Chicago in reply to one he sent inquiring about Hart. The wire stated that Hart did not seem over-anxious and that the chances are that the negotiations will fall through. Britt has sent the articles of agreement, with his signature attached. East, but does not intend to waste much more time with O'Keefe.

Jimmy has had an offer from one of the theatres in San Francisco for a week's engagement, which he has accepted.

BOXING NIGHT.

BAY CITY ATHLETIC CLUB HAS ARRANGED A PROGRAM.

The Bay City Athletic Club will give an amateur show at the Mechanics Pavilion Annex on Friday night and they have arranged an interesting card of bouts for that occasion.

"Tough House" Billy McDonald is to meet Ted Wolfe, and in doing so will give away fully fifteen pounds. McDonald is a lightweight, but has secured all of his class to the world, and in order to get a bout must go into the welterweight class. He is confident of getting the decision over Wolfe.

On the card there are three special bouts, one of which will be between Jack Cordell and George Ellis and another will bring Tom Sears and George Haynes together. The third will see Joe Carroll face to face with Harry Sheridan.

A match between Harry Tenney and Charles Weber and Joe Crowley and Eliot Connors makes up the balance of the program.

WILL NOT FIGHT.

LAVIGNE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE VANCOUVER CLUB'S PLANS.

There has been a hitch in the negotiations for the match between Louis Long of Oakland and George Baker of San Jose, which was scheduled to take place in Vancouver on the 25th inst., and may result in the match being declared off.

The Vancouver people have refused to furnish any other than transportation by boat and stated so positively in a telegram to Billy Lavigne, of the Acme Club, last night.

Lavigne will not take Long up by boat, for the reason that his man will arrive there out of condition by the ride and be compelled to fight within three or four days after his arrival. Unless the Vancouver people change their decision and furnish railroad transportation, the negotiations will be called off.

CLEVER ATHLETES AT ST. MARY'S

GOOD SHOWING MADE BY THE BOYS ON THE TRACK.

Yesterday afternoon the annual field day of St. Mary's College took place on the grounds of the college and all of the events were closely contested, furnishing excellent sport.

Good marks were made in several of the events. In the high jump, Bradley cleared the bar at 5 feet 7 inches, and J. Callaghan put the sixteen-pound shot 45 feet and 4 inches. He also hurled the hammer 137 feet and 8 inches.

Following is the list of events and the results:

100-yard dash—T. Lundy, first. Time, 14-2-5.

100-yard novice race—G. Haley, first; F. Ferguson, second. Time, 10-3-5.

16-pound shotput—J. Callaghan, first; G. Klemmer, second. Distance, 43 feet 4 inches.

400-yard dash—G. Haley, first; E. Hogan, second. Time, 54-4-5.

Pole vault—L. Kahlukon, first. 10 feet 3 inches.

120-yard hurdle—G. Bigley, first; F. Ferguson, second. Time, 1:15.

Hammer throw—J. Callaghan, first; T. Lundy, second. Distance, 137 feet 8 inches.

20-yard hurdle—G. Klemmer, first; G. Haley, second. Time, 27-1-5.

High jump—F. Bradley, first. 5 feet 7 inches.

200-yard dash—G. Klemmer, first; G. Haley, second. Time, 23-1-5.

Broad jump—C. Serventi, first. 20 feet 11 inches.

1 mile run—G. Sepulveda, first; A. Onivers, second. Time, 6:37.

THEY WANT FISH LADDER.

SPORTSMEN COMPLAIN ABOUT A DAM AT SAN LORENZO.

HAYWARDS, May 12.—Sportsmen are complaining against the absence of a fish-ladder in Meek's dam in San Lorenzo creek, below Bowden's place. The dam was built three years ago and is a permanent wood and iron structure. Fishermen say that the fish are unable to go up the river now without the ladder, and the upper part of the stream contains at present practically none of the fishy tribe.

A year ago a complaint was lodged with the Supervisors about the lack of a fish-ladder, but nothing was done in regard to the matter. Some months previous Henry Hogrefe of Crew Canyon built on each bank in the creek without building a fish-ladder. He was prosecuted and compelled to pay a fine of $50, besides building a fish-ladder.

MRS. HOYT REGAINS LOST $25,000 NECKLACE.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The $25,000 pearl necklace lost by Mrs. Colgate Hoyt, wife of the banker, April 2, was found by Miss Harriet Schade, a saleswoman, who has returned the necklace to Mrs. Hoyt. Mrs. Hoyt handed the young woman $100. Three days after Mrs. Hoyt lost her necklace Miss Schade was walking through Twenty-third street on her way to lunch, when she saw the pearls glittering in the gutter. She concluded that the stones were simply beautiful imitations. Miss Schade's parents thought the pearls hardly genuine, but watched the lost and found columns for some mention of such a necklace. A Jeweler finally told the family the pearls were genuine and very valuable.

GANS SIGNS FOR MILLS' GIRLS GET THE CUP.

LONG EXPECTED ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT HAVE BEEN RECEIVED.

The long-expected articles of agreement, which were sent to Portland for the signature of Joe Gans, have been returned and the slight modifications which were mentioned in a telegram from Manager Herford, consist of allowing a higher weight. Herford changed the weight to read 155 pounds instead of 153.

The alterations, coming at the eleventh hour, as it does, precludes any objection from Fitzgerald should he desire to make any, but, as it stands, the Brooklyn lad has none to make and is fully as well pleased with weight as he is with the alterations. Herford showed an inclination in the match suspected that he had something up his sleeve and that he was waiting until it was too late to make any changes. Herford has made a reputation for himself by the evasive way he has of doing business.

Those most interested in the match are pleased to note that Fitzgerald is willing to meet Gans at Herford's own terms and the latter can have no possible excuse to offer in case his man is defeated.

The Fitzgerald camp is very well pleased that Herford has made the weight 155 instead of 153, and they argue that Gans at the latter weight is a better man than he is at the former. They reason that Gans would have to work real hard to get down to 153 and therefore would be in the very best shape. As he can readily make 155, they figure that, negro-like, he will loaf more or less. Fitzgerald is confident that he can dispose of Gans at his best, and if the negro goes into the fight in any but the very best shape, Fitz thinks that his victory will be assured.

Herford Gans will fight Tracy at Portland, and the latter has a strenuous idea that he is going to beat the negro and has gone as far as telegraphing for a meeting with Fitzgerald in the event of his winning tonight. As the match with Gans is conditional upon his defeating Tracy, Wood, Fitzgerald's manager, did not hesitate to reply that he could have the desired match in case the unexpected happened.

Fitzgerald has not been doing any hard training at Croll's on account of his injured hand and does just enough light exercise daily to keep himself in the condition of his fight with Britt. His hand is rounding into shape very nicely and will be sound and hard by the 25th of this month, when he does the fight with the colored boy. He will not do any boxing with the injured hand until the last week of his training.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERMAN ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT.

BERKELEY, May 12.—The engagement has just been announced of Stuart G. Masters, son of the late Rev. F. J. Masters, D. D., for many years superintendent of the Methodist Chinese Mission of the East Coast, to Miss Anita M. Sleeper, daughter of Charles Sleeper, manager of the San Francisco Clearing House and a member of the Berkeley Board of Labor Trustees. Both young people are graduates of the University of California. Masters is local correspondent for the San Francisco Chronicle and is well known among the newspapermen. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

SHIPWRIGHTS' WAGES RAISED.

The carpenters who went on strike at Hay & Wright's shipyards on the Alameda side of the harbor will get the wages they demanded, namely $5 per day for old work and $4 per day for new work. They are being taken back to work as rapidly as they are needed. Owing to the scarcity of material there is employment for but half of the number who stopped work.

THEY ARE THE CHAMPION BASKET BALL PLAYERS OF THE COAST.

The president of the Woman's Basketball League of the Coast has just awarded the cup to the Mills College team. This is the first time that the cup has been given and, of course, the Mills girls are very happy to be the champions of the Coast.

AUTO RACES IN PARIS.

MANY CONTESTANTS TAKE PART IN THE TOURIST CLASS.

PARIS, May 12.—The Paris-Madrid automobile races were inaugurated today, fifty-eight contestants in the tourist's class starting from the Automobile Club of France between 7 a. m. and noon.

Although the main speed tests are to be made later, great interest was taken in the tests of the heavier vehicles and the opening of this year's long distance races. The recent rains promised heavy roads, reports from Madrid stating that some of the stretches were in a dangerous condition and requiring great caution.

The start was made in fine weather. The Race De La Concorde presented a gay appearance, being thronged with participants in the contest and hundreds of others intending to show the racers over the first stretch. Today's run is from Paris to Poitiers, 221 kilometers. The machines will enter Spain May 20 and reach Madrid May 25.

A number of Americans viewed the start and several were among the occupants of the participating cars. "Toi" Sloan piloted one of the runners.

W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., who has entered for the speed test, will start later, but he was a passenger today on Portier's car.

NICHOLLS MAN OF IRON NERVE.

TALKED WITH SURGEON WHILE UNDERGOING PAIN OF AMPUTATIONS.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 12.—Henry Nicholls, a well-known member of the Jersey City Club was taken to a hospital on Sunday suffering from blood-poisoning, the result of an injury to his right leg. Later he was informed that the leg must be amputated.

The surgeons found that the action of Mr. Nicholls' heart would not warrant the use of anesthetics and he was obliged to submit to the operation without them. After the leg had been amputated below the knee it was found that gangrene extended above the knee and that a second operation would be necessary. The leg was then amputated at the thigh. Not once did the patient lose consciousness. He talked with Dr. Dickinson while the leg was being removed, and when the operation was over he congratulated the physician.

The $2 fine inflicted upon Baron de Rothschild for speeding his automobile in Paris will doubtless be a good lesson to him.—Chicago Journal.

OAKLAND WINS FROM PORTLAND TEAM.

PULLS OUT THE GAME IN THE TWELFTH INNING.

It was late in the afternoon before Pete Lohman's bats distinguished themselves in the game with Portland yesterday on the latter's grounds. The game had reached the twelfth inning and the score was 7 to 7, when Oakland secured a number of passes from Butler and sent seven men around the bases before Portland recovered and let the game go by default.

For the first time this season the Los Angeles team will make its appearance this afternoon in San Francisco against the home team.

In the Portland-Oakland game yesterday Graham lasted well until the ninth inning, when he went bad and Pete Lohman put Moskman in.

The two Eastern players expected by Cal Ewing will not arrive in time to join the team in the north, for yesterday the railroad company told Cal that the two men he had sent transportation to had failed to take up their tickets.

Old Bill Hanlon has been secured by Park Wilson to play first base for him.

Henry Harris has his eye on another pitcher. He is a college man and is present playing with the National League.

Tom Leahy's bad finger is mended and he was behind the bat today.

Contrary to announcements Jim Corbett will not be on the field to see his brother Joe pitch for Morley Thursday. Jim's theatrical contract forbids him appearing in public.

Huether will appear with the Los Angeles team as Dillon has decided to release him, as he feels insecure with only one catcher. He reasons that it would be just as easy for the Browns to get a man as for him to do so.

HAVE MERCY FOR ANIMALS.

FINE AMBULANCE FOR DUMB ANIMALS IN CASE OF ACCIDENT.

Last night the Oakland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held its annual election, and the following officers as a consequence were elected: President, Rev. E. E. Baker; vice-president, Dr. F. M. L. Hus; secretary, Fred Johns; treasurer, B. R. Ranning; counsel, J. B. Richardson; veterinarian, Dr. T. L. Carpenter.

Mrs. A. F. Holland and Mrs. T. C. Jenkins have secured $900 in subscriptions for the new animal ambulance, plans for which have been accepted. The wagon will be placed on exhibition in a booth at the Oakland street fair and carnival.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, Mrs. A. P. Holland and Mrs. T. C. Jenkins have interested themselves in raising a fund for the construction of an Animal Ambulance, and

"Whereas, These ladies have informed this Society that they have secured satisfactory promises of a large portion of the necessary money, and

"Whereas, They have requested the society to accept such ambulance, take care of and manage the same:

"Therefore be it resolved, That upon the presentation of such ambulance to this society, this society will take charge of it, care for and manage it to the best interests of suffering animals, and be it further

"Resolved, That a vote of thanks of this society be tendered to these ladies, and that the society, in behalf of suffering animals, and in the name of humanity, do thank them most heartily, and be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Jenkins, and be spread upon the minutes of this board."

The society has definitely determined to have a booth at the coming street fair, and the board, last evening, appointed the secretary, Fred Johns, and Dr. Hus, a committee to make the arrangements for it. The officers of the Society hope that the ambulance will be completed in time to be among their exhibits at the carnival.

CANADA SEEKS TO SELL STUFF TO JAPAN

VICTORIA, B. C., May 12.—Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture for Canada, returned from Japan, having been superintending the Canadian exhibit at the Osaka exhibition by the steamship Empress of India yesterday.

He says that as a result of his visit he believes a large trade in flour, lumber, furniture and pulp could be worked up with Japan. He was decorated by the Emperor of Japan and entertained by him. Mr. Fisher said the war feeling was very strong in Japan, but Japanese officialdom was of the opinion that Russia would evacuate Manchuria and avoid a conflict. He spoke eulogistically of the great showing made by Japan's navy at the Kobe review.

MISSION MEETINGS.

Dr. Carradine, the well-known holiness evangelist, will begin meetings at the Fenel Mission, 49 Third street, on the evening of May 14 and continue until May 21. Meetings will be held daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and on Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

RACING IN HOME OF RACERS.

PLEASANTON BUSINESS MEN ARRANGE FOR FALL FAIR AND RACE MEET.

PLEASANTON, May 12.—A number of prominent citizens of this city held a meeting last night and decided to hold an agricultural fair in this city, including racing, for five days, following the meeting of the State Fair at Sacramento.

An organization will be formed to be known as the Pleasanton Agricultural Fair and Racing Association.

Those present at the meeting were C. L. Crellin, Frank Lewis, W. H. Donohue, N. Hanson, W. Olney and Fred Adams.

It is proposed to make the racing a large event, and all the people in the city and end of the county will be asked to take an active interest in the association.

YOUNG CORBETT.

HE IS EXPECTED TO ARRIVE IN NEW YORK TO-MORROW.

Young Corbett is expected to reach New York tomorrow and he will be met by representatives of the San Francisco Athletic Club and the city and the match will be refereed by Eddie Grady.

In accordance with the conditions the men will weigh in at 6 o'clock this evening and must tip the scales at 110 pounds. Neither men will have any difficulty in making that weight.

CHUMMED WITH ROOSEVELT.

OAKLAND ROUGH-RIDERS WHO ENJOYED A VISIT TO ROOSEVELT.

While at San Jose, President Roosevelt was visited by four rough riders from Oakland. They were George C. King, Jackson H. Misner, formerly of Troop B; Rev. Luther D. Malone, who was stationed at brigade headquarters of the Spanish-American war, all members of Camp Liscum, Service Men; and Charles Hodgdon, known as "Happy Jack."

President Roosevelt recognized the men and gave them a hearty welcome, calling them by their nicknames. Notwithstanding the fact that the President's time is occupied almost entirely in other quarters, he gave them twenty minutes. Cigars were passed around and all thoroughly enjoyed the little reunion. Roosevelt presented each of the men with a pass to go through the line to speak to him when he visits this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FOR TIPPLERS.

EVERY CITY IN HER BORDERS LICENSES PUBLIC SALE OF LIQUORS.

CHICAGO, May 12.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Concord, N. H., says:

Every one of New Hampshire's eleven cities yesterday voted to grant licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors for the coming year. Of the 135 towns so far heard from one hundred voted in favor, and the remainder in favor. This was the first time the people of the cities and towns had voted on license under the recently adopted repeal of the State prohibition law and the overwhelming vote in favor of the sale of liquor in the cities was the surprise of the day.

HARVARD DOES NOT WANT A CONTEST

WILL NOT GO TO LONDON TO MEET THE ENGLISH MEN.

LONDON, May 12.—The Oxford-Cambridge Athletic Association have received a cable from the Athletic authorities saying that the proposed athletic contest in London during the month of July is declined, owing to Harvard's refusal to participate in it.

WHAT HARVARD SAYS.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 12.—Professor Ira N. Hollis, of the Harvard Athletic Committee, said today that Harvard had never understood that the English Universities were anxious for the American universities to meet them in track athletic contests.

"We understood," he said, "that Oxford and Cambridge were willing to send us a challenge if we desired. We have never expressed a desire for an international meet this year, and we have not received an out and out challenge. We feel that the plan for an international meet which was worked up wholly on this side of the Atlantic was proposed too late. We look upon those games merely from the point of view as to whether they promote athletics and when an opportunity to hold athletic games comes so late in the term we usually reject it."

WILL FIGHT TONIGHT.

JOE GANS WILL GO UP AGAINST TOMMY TRACEY AT PORTLAND.

Joe Gans, the lightweight champion of the world, and Tommy Tracey, will fight tonight in Portland before the Pastime Athletic Club. That city and the match will be refereed by Eddie Grady.

In accordance with the conditions the men will weigh in at 6 o'clock this evening and must tip the scales at 110 pounds. Neither men will have any difficulty in making that weight.

Ministers, Lawyers, Teachers, and others whose occupation gives but little exercise, should use Carter's Little Liver Pills for torpid liver and biliousness. One is a dose. Try them.

NOTICE INVITING SUBMISSION OF PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS FOR SCHOOL BUILDING.

The Trustees of Laurel School District desire the submission to them of plans and specifications in detail for a school building to be erected on the school site in the Town of Hayward, County of Alameda, State of California.

Said building to be constructed of wood with brick foundation, two stories high and to contain sixteen classrooms, each with seating capacity for at least seventy pupils, and also room for Principal's office, two teachers' rooms, and a combined kitchen and dining hall. Proper fire escape shall be provided for upper story. There shall be proper entrances provided to said building and necessary halls provided.

Twenty-six thousand dollars will be expended for the erection of said building. The cost of the cost of said building will be paid to the architect whose plans are accepted.

The architect whose plans are accepted will be required, for the same compensation, to superintend the construction of said building, and his fee shall be paid in full when the building is completed. Proper fire escape shall be provided for upper story. There shall be proper entrances provided to said building and necessary halls provided.

In case such architect whose plans and specifications are accepted should be required to enter into such contract to construct such building, then the Board of Trustees will pay to such architect two and one-half per cent of the contract price for the plans and specifications and said Board reserves the right to employ a suitable person to superintend the construction of said building.

Sealed bids, accompanied by plans and specifications, will be received by G. S. Langan, Clerk of the Board of Trustees of Laurel School District, at his office in the Town of Hayward, County of Alameda, State of California, at any time prior to Saturday, the 15th day of May, 1903, at four o'clock in the afternoon, when and where all bids at that time received will be opened.

At four o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, the 23rd day of May, 1903, at said office of said Clerk, said Board of Trustees will select and adopt plans and specifications from those so submitted and make the award to the successful bidder.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dated, Hayward, Cal., April 29th, 1903.

G. S. LANGAN, A. J. DEAN, J. A. OBERMULLER, Trustees of Laurel School District.

The Clerk may be seen or communicated with at any time, except Sunday, at 321 Broadway, Oakland, California, at the law office of Langan & Lemos.

The time within which to present plans and specifications as provided for in the foregoing notice by the Trustees of Laurel School District is hereby extended to 4 o'clock P. M. of the 27th day of May, 1903.

Dated, May 12th, 1903.

G. S. LANGAN, A. J. DEAN, J. A. OBERMULLER, Trustees of Laurel School District.

SPORT FOR NEW YORK MILLIONAIRES.

GOULD'S GEORGIAN COURT SCENE OF THRILLING GAMES.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The polo season is now in full swing. Georgian Court, the estate of George Gould, is now an animated scene of prancing ponies and plucky polo players. There is no more exhilarating or manly sport than polo, and all of our men of wealth who can sit a fast horse have become its devotees. Polo has thus come to be called "the sport of millionaires," and among the more strenuous classes in American society has caused "golf" to be relegated to a rear position.

The above snapshot, taken at the opening of the season, shows a group of millionaires ready for play.

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Holinger was removed without a surgical operation.

"I had an abscess in my side in the fallopian tube (the fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries). I suffered untold misery and I was so weak I could scarcely get a round. The sharp burning pains low down in my side were terrible. My physician said there was no help for me unless I would go to the hospital and be operated on. I thought before that I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and, fortunately, I did, and it has made me a stout, healthy woman. My advice to all women who suffer with any kind of female trouble is to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once."—Mrs. I. S. HOLINGER, Stillview, Ohio.—"30000 forfeit if I find of above letter proving genuine medicine cannot be reduced."

It would seem by this statement that women would save time and much sickness if they would get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and also write to Mrs. Pincham at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. This is given at always helps. No other person can give such helpful advice as Mrs. Pincham. "No woman who is sick."

KIDNAPED GIRL RETURNS A WOMAN.

Clearing Up Mystery of Ethel Clark's Long Absence.

Cruel Revenge of Tramp Who Was Asked to Wait for Breakfast.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 13.—Ethel Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper W. Clarke, who was kidnaped twenty-three years ago, is once again in the home from which she was stolen. One morning in the spring of 1880 Mrs. Clarke arose early to go to a grocery store, two or three blocks distant from her home, then in a sparsely settled neighborhood. On returning she was confronted by a tramp whom she had before befriended and who demanded his breakfast immediately.

Mrs. Clarke told him he would have to wait until she saw fit to give him something. The fellow cursed and threatened her.

That afternoon Ethel disappeared. On the last anniversary of her disappearance one of the local newspapers published a story of Ethel Clark's kidnapping. A few days later a handsome young woman called upon Mrs. Clarke.

"My name is Ethel Clark and I believe I am your daughter," said the visitor. Then she told that she remembered being taken away when very young by a rough man and carried to an orphan asylum in Washington, where she remained until she was 18 years of age, since which time she has been earning her living in a silk factory in this city. The fullest investigation has been made, resulting in the positive identification of the young woman as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke.

NEW BELL FOR BOY TRAMPLED TO PLEASANTON. DEATH.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED FOR THE BRUTAL CONDUCT OF GANG OF LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT. MOTT STREET RUFFIANS IN NEW YORK.

PLEASANTON, May 13.—The regular monthly meeting of the fire department was held Monday evening at the Town Hall. The department decided to start a subscription paper to buy a thousand-pound fire bell. The Board of Trustees will erect the tower for the bell.

This is something that is badly needed in Pleasanton, as the present bell is very small and can only be heard a short distance from the hall. The following officers were elected: J. H. Neal, president; C. A. Bruce, vice-president; W. Graham, secretary; T. H. Silver, treasurer.

PLEASANTON PRODUCTS GOING TO ENGLAND.

The Kind Our Mother Used to Take.

It Was The Best Prescription Then—It Is NOW.

N the old days it was sometimes considered fashionable to be delicate, pale and with an inclination to faint at the least provocation. It is different now. America is raising a strong race—a race of vigorous and healthy mothers. When a woman becomes nervous, suffers from backache, sleeplessness, a general tired-out and fogged feeling, with dragging-down pains, she turns to the right remedy. She is positive she can get relief and assistance from Doctor Pierce.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women even attained, the proprietors of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 physician. In such a case they can put perfect confidence in Dr. Pierce, who has made such a success in the treatment of woman's diseases, for he will give you the very best advice possible, and without cost to you. To grow beautiful, healthy and happy should be the desire of every woman. It is then possible to hold a husband and make home happy and bring contentment to it.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives the mother health to give her child. It cures nervousness, nausea and sleeplessness. It makes the body comfortable and the mind content. It gives physical vigor and muscular elasticity so that the baby's advent is practically painless.

"I write you to let you know I received your kind and ever welcome letter and your kind and fatherly advice," writes Mrs. Ida Martin, of Berry, Ky. "I commenced your treatment the next day after receiving your letter, some months ago, and allowed your advice to be closely as I could. Am glad to say I am a better health than have been for years. Believe I suffered from every disease that any over-worked, run-down woman could. Was not able to do anything, could not get one good night's sleep; had heart disease of the worst type. A disordered liver was one great trouble, and, being through change of life, it seemed to cause the excruciating pains in breast and shoulders. I had no appetite, could not sleep nor do any housework. I took treatment from three of the best doctors in our town but grew worse every day, so I decided to write to Dr. Pierce for advice. I took the medicines just as you advised and continued until I had taken six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription.' I know that your medicines did more for me than all the medical treatment I had ever taken."

Mrs. Geo. W. Wood, of Whitehall, Mich., writes: "I feel that I must let you know how much good your 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. In June, three months ago, an eight-pound baby was born to us by a C-section. I took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription before his birth and got along nicely; was sick only a short time, and when baby was born I felt nearly as strong as I ever did. Was staying at my mother's at the time, and when baby was one week old I rode from there to my home, a distance of about two miles. Got up the fourth day and remained up, and when baby was two weeks old, walked to town and back which is quite a distance from where we live. I also felt so strong that I sat up for a short time the very day he was born. Baby is healthy and growing very fast and I give the credit to your wonderful medicines."

WILL EXAMINE

CRANK FOR INSANITY.

Alfred Crank, aged 60 years, was taken to the Receiving Hospital from the City Prison to be examined as a charge of insanity. He was found wandering in the streets.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE William E. Dargie, President JOURNALISTIC COURTESY.

Some surprise is expressed that the Examiner should print a handsome picture of M. H. de Young, the proprietor of the Chronicle. Many seem to regard it as singular.

But why not? It is a piece of news. Mr. de Young is chairman of the committee appointed to receive the President in San Francisco. He is a distinguished citizen, prominent in journalism, politics and public affairs, and is just now very much in the public eye as the man delegated to extend the city's welcome to the Chief Magistrate of the nation. His personal appearance is naturally a matter of interest to many thousands.

As a great newspaper it is the Examiner's function to satisfy the public's curiosity—to print the news.

But aside from all this, why should it be surprising that one newspaper proprietor should treat another newspaper proprietor with the consideration that would be accorded any other citizen under similar circumstances? It is because newspaper men have themselves bred the custom of treating political differences and business rivalries as personal matters. It is a custom more honored in the breach than the observance, and is, we are pleased to state, becoming obsolete. It is silly, undignified, unjust and is responsible for much of the popular misapprehension regarding newspaper men as a class.

Mr. Hearst and Mr. de Young each owns a great newspaper in San Francisco. Those journals are rivals only in the sense that one large store is the rival of another large store in the same city. Mr. Hearst and Mr. de Young differ in politics and on many public questions, but why should those differences prevent them from treating each other with the courtesy one gentleman ordinarily shows to another.

It is a serious reflection on the methods which have heretofore prevailed that an exhibition of the ordinary courtesy that should prevail among gentlemen excites surprise. It is evidence that the newspapers have educated the public to believe that they cannot treat other newspaper men decently and fairly. In the past it was such a common thing for editors and publishers to libel each other that people hardly understand the discontinuance of the practice.

It is gratifying to see editors getting out of the narrow habit of ignoring or vilifying each other. Merchants, though rivals in business, do not treat each other that way. Neither do bankers, lawyers, physicians and men in other callings. It has been reserved for newspaper men exclusively to treat each other as social outlaws and to denounce each other in such virulent terms that the public regard the charges and epithets as Pickwickian.

As a fact the editors of the Chronicle and Examiner have for a long time observed all the amenities in their references to each other, but the fact has only been impressed on the public mind by recent events which have brought Mr. de Young to the center of the stage in San Francisco. Let us hope that the example will be generally followed, and that in future discourtesy among the editorial fraternity toward each other will provoke the surprise.

The "open door" in Manchuria will soon be an open question no longer. Neither is the door.

President Roosevelt's tour has emphasized his popularity with newspaper men. He is a writer himself and in a sense feels a personal kinship with press writers. His manners are so open and engaging, and his talk so frank that he naturally inspires the liking of men who understand the virtues of plain speaking and truth telling. They like him because he is so different from the usual dignitary of high station. He not only speaks his mind, but he stands by what he says. He therefore has the good will of the newspaper fraternity and seldom has to complain of unfair treatment. In San Francisco the press writers have manifested in many ways their partiality for the President, and have showed him attentions which he doubtless thoroughly enjoyed and appreciates.

Mr. Bryan's explanation of his failure to accept the invitation to attend the dedication of the exposition buildings was that he was only asked to sit off to one side with the lesser dignitaries while Grover Cleveland was the next biggest Indian to the President. It is just as well for Mr. Bryan's peace of mind that he staid away for the hearty cheers given the ex-President would have harrowed his soul to a degree fearful to contemplate. It is bad enough for a Missouri crowd to cheer Cleveland, but to cheer him right under the eye of Mr. Bryan is too much to be borne. No wonder Mr. Bryan staid at home and asked himself if Tom Jefferson didn't purchase Louisiana to spite Spain to one and its prophet.

It is evident that the powder used in the Postoffice Department is not of the smokeless variety.

IS THE BIBLE SECTARIAN?

The Pacific, organ of the Congregational church, believes the Attorney General is wrong in deciding that the Bible is a sectarian book within the meaning of the law. This opinion was called forth by protests against reading the Bible in the public schools. Doubtless the Pacific would call the Book of Mormon, the Koran, the Vedas and other sacred books sectarian, but assuming the Christian religion to be the only true faith, it proceeds upon the theory that the Bible alone of all religious books is non-sectarian.

But how about the Jew? He accepts one-half the Bible and rejects the other half. He believes the Old Testament contains the law and regards the New Testament as the embodiment of heresy. The Bible cannot be read in the schools without offending his sensibilities and violating his religious convictions.

Again, the Bible does not mean the same thing to the Protestant that it does to the Catholic. There are books in the Catholic Bible not contained in the Protestant version of the Scriptures. Thus, while the Jews reject the New Testament entirely, the Catholic New Testament differs materially from the Protestant Testament.

Granting that the Pacific is right and that the Bible is not a sectarian book, which Bible is it that is not sectarian? This question discloses the impossibility of reconciling creeds in school text books. Nobody will object to teaching the Ten Commandments in the schools nor the reading of books which in a general way illustrate the virtues of truth, morality and belief in the Deity and the immortality of the soul, but when it comes to differentiating and reading books that embody the doctrines peculiar to particular sects sectarianism is necessarily introduced into the scheme of popular education.

Unquestionably, the Pacific would protest vigorously against reading the Catholic version of the Bible in the schools. On what ground, then, does it find fault with Catholics for objecting to the King James version? or with the Jews for objecting to reading either? The law does not presume to decide between faiths and sects. It simply puts them all on the same footing. In pursuance to that the Bible is excluded from the schools. Not that it is a harmful book, but that its presence is a religious discrimination in favor of some sects and against others.

GERMANY AND THE JESUITS.

The proposal to permit the Jesuits to return to Germany is provoking bitter and, in some quarters, unexpected opposition. It is known that the Kaiser favors it or the ministry would not suggest it, and the Reichstag is ready to give assent. But the Protestant journals are up in arms about it, and some of them pointedly intimate that the proposal to allow the Jesuits to return is the fruit of a bargain by which the Kaiser secures the support of the Catholic party for his tariff and military measures. An insurmountable obstacle to the project appears in the Bundesrath, which, like our Senate, represents the states of the Empire. Ordinarily this body assents to any measure favored by the crown that passes the Reichstag, but in this matter the representatives of Prussia and Bavaria alone favor it. The Prussian delegates favor it because they reflect the wishes of the Kaiser who is King of Prussia. Bavaria is a Catholic kingdom. The Saxons delegates are in strong opposition although the royal family of Saxony are Catholics. Saxony is Protestant, and popular sentiment in the kingdom is stronger than the authority of the sovereign.

Another influence militates against the success of the scheme. A considerable element among the Catholics are either opposed outright to the re-establishment of the Society of Jesuits in Germany or regard it with indifference. In many localities the prejudice against the Jesuits is almost as strong among the Catholics as among the Protestants. Indeed, it is stated that this prejudice is fostered rather than dispelled by some of the other priestly orders in Germany. Whether this be true or false, the fact remains that German Catholics are far from presenting a united front in favor of the proposition, and without their united support it is likely to fall in the face of an aggressive Protestant opposition.

NEW THINGS: STRANGE & CURIOUS.

Water Clock.

This is probably the most curious clock in the world. A metal drum, with a metal axle stuck through it, is upheld by two strings in such a manner that the latter gradually unwind, allowing the drum to descend. Under ordinary circumstances the drum would run to the bottom in a moment, but owing to an ingenious device it takes exactly 24 hours to go from the top to the bottom. Each hour is indicated by a peg, and thus the "Jap" can always tell what time it is.

The drum is divided inside by radial partitions into a series of compartments, in one of which some water is put. The partitions are pierced by pin holes, allowing the water to pass slowly through from one compartment to another, and thus to revolve, as it is impelled by gravity to do, because in revolving it is obliged to lift the water. It can only go around as fast as the water goes from one compartment to another, and thus its speed can be regulated exactly according to the size of the pin holes.

Wonders Of Coal.

The formation of coal, according to Dr. Hume, Greene's cosmical theory, was due to the solar orb bringing forth millions of years ago, when it was larger and hotter than today, a wonderfully luxuriant vegetation, including plants of strange kinds, mosses as large as forest trees and ferns 20 feet in height, growing up richly from the clayey soil and forming dense jungles in the vast marshes, the latter covering great areas of the earth's surface. These ferns, mosses, and the stems, branches and trunks of trees in time falling, decayed where they grew only to render the soil more fertile and the next growth more luxuriant. Year after year, century after century, this process of growth and decay went on until the beds of vegetable matter thus deposited became of great thickness.

The earth's body, however, still continued to shrink, in consequence of which, her crust sinking throughout vast areas, the beds of vegetable matter going down and the water sweeping again over the great marshes, sand and mud and gravel were laid down anew over the deposits, and the clayey soil from which the next rich growth would spring was spread out on the surface, this process being repeated again and again, as many times, indeed, as there are seams of coal in any coal bed.

In this way, according to Dr. Greene, the conditions for the formation of coal were made complete, atmospheric air being entirely excluded while the vegetable beds underwent the process of decomposition, so that in some beds of coal whole trees have been found, with roots, branches, leaves and seeds complete, and all converted into the same kind of coal as that surrounding.

Costly Canals.

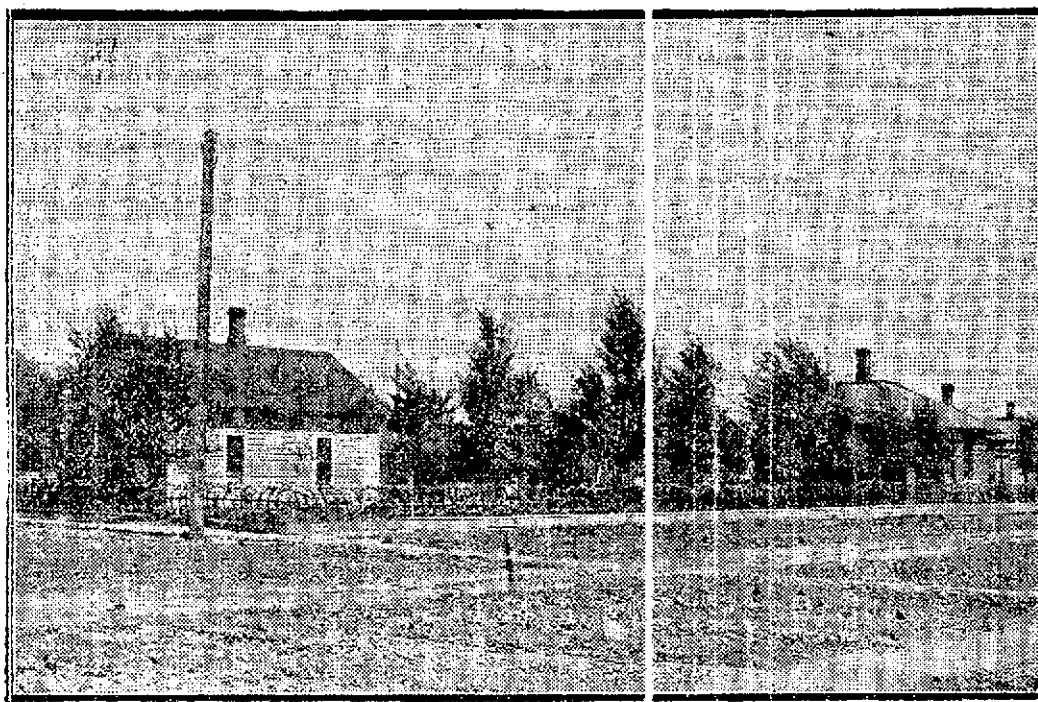

The oldest and the most important ship canal is that of Suez, begun in 1859 and completed in 1869. It is 190 miles in length and cost $80,000,000. In 1902 $10,000,000 was expended to widen it.

Ships are allowed to pass through it at a speed of five and one-half miles per hour, so that its whole length can be traversed in 18½ hours. Night navigation is made possible by electric lights, which were introduced in 1887. The tolls are eight shillings per ton. In 1870 483 ships passed through the canal; in 1880, 2,020; in 1900, 3,441. In the year 1900 221,345 passengers were transported.

In 1867 the Emperor William Canal, to connect the North Sea with the Baltic, was begun, and the canal was opened in 1896. Its cost was $40,000,000. Its receipts do not cover expenses. Still another canal connecting the North Sea with the Baltic was opened in 1900. Its cost was $6,000,000.

The Manchester Ship Canal cost $85,000,000. Amsterdam is connected with the sea by a ship canal opened in 1845, and Rotterdam is likewise connected with deep water by a canal opened in 1850. The Gulf of Corinth Canal was finished in 1893. It cost about $5,000,000.

FENCE CONSTRUCTED OF ELK HORNS.

It is highly probable that the United States does not contain a rarer curiosity in the way of a fence than the one to be found in Livingston, Mont., and which is the subject of illustration. The fence is made from between 250 and 300 elk horns, representing about 150 animals. The first thought is that it was cruel to slaughter all these elk in order that their horns might be used for fence building, but this is not the case. It should be remembered that the wapiti regularly causes its horns.

Instead of there having been a general slaughter of the animals, the horns used in this fence were gathered on the winter range and taken to town for the express purpose of building this novel and remarkable fence.

In the East elk have become so scarce it would appear that the owner of the fence has a rich possession. Previous to $12 elk were found in New York State, and even later in Pennsylvania. There are two or three small herds in California at present, but it is likely that before the present century ends the animal will become extinct. In many Montana towns the horns are quite common and quite a few are sent here and there as trophies. Chairs, picture frames and large knife handles are also made from the horn, while for decorative purposes they are much cherished.

A GRASS THAT "IRES."

In some parts of New Mexico there grows a grass which produces a sonorous effect on the animals that graze upon it. Horses, after eating the grass, in nearly all cases, sleep soundly, while cows and sheep almost invariably lie down.

It has occasionally happened that travelers have stopped to allow horses to feed in places where the grass grows pretty thickly and the animals have had time to eat a considerable quantity before its effects manifested themselves.

In such cases horses have gone to sleep on the road, and it is hard to arouse them. The effect of the grass passes off in an hour or two, and no bad results have ever been noticed on account of it. Cattle on the ranches frequently come upon patches of this grass, where they feed for perhaps half an hour, and then fall asleep for an hour or more, when they wake up and start feeding again. The program is repeated perhaps a dozen times, until thirst obliges them to go to water.

Whether, like the poppy, the grass contains opium, or whether its sleep-producing property is due to some other substance is not known.

BEAUTIFUL GIFT FOR THE POPE.

A feature of the Silver Jubilee of Pope Leo, marking its completion this month is the presentation to him of a splendid gift by Emperor Franz Josef of Austria.

A beautiful work of art it is, being one of the choicest productions of Herr Rudolf

Marshall, the Viennese sculptor. On a block of marble, which is finely veined with violet, stands a figure of gold, representing the "Good Shepherd." In his arms the shepherd holds a lost lamb, and behind him follow other members of the flock. Remarkably lifelike and impressive is the picture, as the accompanying illustration shows, and the Emperor is said to be highly pleased with it. On the marble is engraved a suitable Latin inscription and over it appear the Papal and Imperial arms, set in gold and precious stones.

LARGEST OF RAW'S HORNS.

On February 1 last was published the photograph of what was believed to be the "record" head among big horned sheep. Since its publication the owner of another remarkable pair of horns has sent a photograph of the head to substantiate his claim to have the largest horns. A comparison of the dimensions of the two sets, as well as of their photographs, readily proves the superiority of the new set. The "record" set of horns, it should therefore be said, belong to Mr. George C. Gill, of Hildale, Mass. The horns owned by Mr. Gill are not only larger in every dimension than the pair already reproduced on this page, but are superior in form and beauty. The spread of the first pair of horns was 51 inches. Mr. Gill's pair measure 62 inches. The first pair of horns, again, measured seven inches through at the butt, while the larger pair measure 15½ inches. The 62-inch horns were exhibited three years ago at the exhibition of the American Sportsmen's Club, in Chicago, where it was asserted to be the "record" head.

Resurrection Plant.

What is generally known as the rose of Jericho is, perhaps, one of the most familiar of the curiosities of plant life known as resurrection plants, though other varieties have recently been added to the list of these oddities. The rose of Jericho is said to be imported from the valley of the River Jordan, and is the resurrection plant mentioned in the Bible. The plant when received from its native home is simply a bunch of leafless and seemingly lifeless sticks or branches, clustered together tightly. When placed in a glass of water, however, the branches expand, seed buds unfold, and soon the green foliage starts out and the plant really grows.

The resurrection plant is the fluffiest fernlike variety often noticed in saucers of water in the florist's window. This delights the children, as the plant is quickly resurrected from a dry, hard ball to a green living plant. When it is dormant it is a shrunken, rounded ball of tightly folded leaflets, dry and dead.

It is dropped in a bowl of tepid water, and soon one frondlike tip curls slowly outward, then another and another, and in a short time there is floating in the dish a beautiful, delicate green plant, a great loose, expanded rosette of fine fernlike leaves, odd and beautiful.

This experiment can be repeated many times, the plant curling together tightly when dry and expanding into new life when soaked in water. The resurrection plant is the only resurrection plant that develops blossoms. In reality it is the blossom that is resurrected from a dry, hard shell-like substance to a full blown flower.

Stones Are "Alive."

The most curious specimens of vegetable or plant life in existence are the so-called "living stones" of the Falkland Islands. Those islands are among the most cheerless spots in the world, being constantly subjected to a strong polar wind.

In such a climate it is impossible for trees to grow erect, as they do in other countries, but nature has made amends by furnishing a supply of wood in the most curious shape imaginable. The visitor to the Falklands sees scattered here and there singular shaped blocks of what appear to be weather beaten and moss covered boulders, in various sizes.

Attempt to turn one of these "boulders" over and you will meet with a surprise, because the stone is actually anchored by roots of great strength; in fact, you will find that you are fooling with one of the native trees.

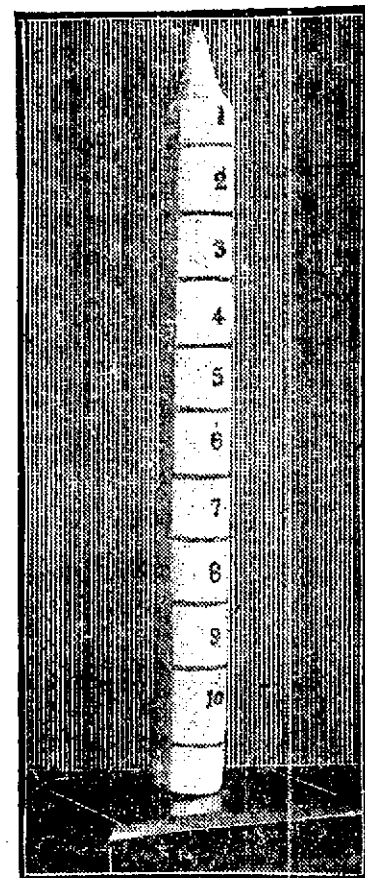

No other country in the world has such a peculiar "forest" growth, and it is said to be next to impossible to work the odd shaped blocks into fuel, because the wood is perfectly devoid of "grain" and appears to be a twisted mass of woody fibres.

Germany has seven academies and five schools for the teaching of forestry.

Candle Tells Time.

King Alfred, who was called the Great, was the original advocate of an eight hour law. He said that man should give eight hours out of every day to work, eight hours to sleep and eight hours to play. In order to keep tabs on the hours, at a period when there were no clocks he invented the time keeping candle, which was afterward used in monasteries and elsewhere quite commonly.

The candle was divided up in such a way as to indicate the hours by its burning. Such a candle is here shown, but the divisions are only for quarter hours. If you make a candle big enough in diameter and the wick small enough it will burn for months, of course.

Indigo was first used as a dye in Europe in 1570. Cocchineal came into use about the same time.

CIGARETTE TONGS.

In the good old days of Queen Pess every smoker had in his outfit a pair of cigarette tongs. If he were a gallant of the court they were made of silver; if a substantial merchant, of brass; but if a working man, of cheap ironware. They were a necessary implement to the smoker. Matches were unknown and the only available fire in the daytime was the blazing log upon the hearth. With the poker a smaller piece of the glowing ember was broken off, which with the tongs was applied to the freshly charged pipe.

Hundreds of these tongs are to be found in the collections of antiquarians. Most of them are clumsy objects, but a few are graceful in outline and artistic in workmanship. These tongs were revived on a small scale some 20 years ago, when they were employed for holding cigarettes. The cigarette tongs were from two to four inches in length, connected at the upper end by a small spring, which kept the ends together when in a position of rest.

When used the smoker opened them and caught the cigarette between the tips, close up to the mouth end. The contrivance enabled the user to burn the cigarette down to the last whiff, and protected the fingers from the discoloring vapor that produces the brown stain upon the fore and middle fingers.

Primitive Surgery.

Surgical operations were performed on the human skull in America 200 years before the coming of Columbus. The work was done in those early days with the aid of shells and flint hatchets. Many skulls have been discovered in Peru which illustrate the methods of these early surgeons. From the appearance of the skull it is also evident that a considerable proportion of those operated upon lived afterward.

This trephining was probably performed to save the lives of those who had received a serious wound from a club or a stone. Considering that the surgeons of those early days worked with nothing more effective than sharp shells or flint knives, the work is exceedingly creditable. Human skulls bearing the signs of similar operations also have been found in Europe, dating back to prehistoric times. In the South Sea Islands the operation is often performed with the same primitive implements. The local surgeons not only trephine in the case of fractures, but as a cure for epilepsy and certain forms of insanity. Trephining is also performed in this primitive way even as a cure for headache.

The sound of the first eruption of Mont Pelée is now ascertained to have been heard at Maracaibo, in Venezuela, a distance of 800 miles.

Six Stringed Spinnet

Several beautifully fashioned musical instruments of various kinds, dating back to the Middle Ages, were recently acquired by the Royal Society of Berlin, and among them was a six-stringed spinnet. It was made in the sixteenth century, and the delicate carving with which it is embellished is ample proof that it was the work of an artist.

A century or two ago it might have been possible to get good music out of this instrument, but now it is sadly out of tune, and no one with a musical ear could long endure to hear it.

One reason why the Royal Society prizes it highly is because on the inside of its cover are painted several emblems and grotesque pictures of animals. In mediaeval times emblems were more popular than they are now, and the artist who used them for the purpose of beautifying this spinnet, was evidently well versed in the subject.

The Wedding Ring.

Along time ago the wedding ring was worn on the forefinger and was thickly studded with precious stones. People who have seen the old pictures of the Madonnas in Rome will remember that in one or two of them there is a glistering ring on the forefinger of her right hand, but with Christianity came the wedding ring on the third finger rather than the first. The old story of there being a vein that runs from that finger to the heart is nonsense. Its use originated in this way: The priest first put it on the thumb, saying, "In the name of the Father," on the forefinger, adding, "In the name of the Son," on the second finger, repeating, "In the name of the Holy Ghost," and on the third finger, ending with "Amen," and there it stayed.

The British Empire outside the United Kingdom only contains some eight and one-half million of people of British descent—that is to say, only one in 40 of its population.

Camera Caught Ball.

The accompanying picture was taken by George M. Smith, of Brooklyn, at his summer home at Rockaway, N. Y., and is considered by photographers to which it has been shown to be a most remarkable picture of an object in motion. Mr. Smith, whose expert knowledge runs along the line of optics rather than photography, took the picture by a snapshot while the ball was tossing the ball in the air. When shown to the head of a firm of well-known New York photographers he declared it to be a picture that probably could never be taken as clearly, even under the same conditions, again. When this expert in turn showed the picture to other photographers they said they would need an affidavit that the picture was not "a fake," but when fully assured that it was taken "on the square," agreed that it was a remarkable picture of a moving object.

Who Skated First?

It is very doubtful which race first skated, for traces have been found among prehistoric remains all over Northern Europe indicating that the art was practised by primitive peoples. The Eskimos of the farthest north are also found to be in possession of runners carved from walrusbone.

Skating is mentioned by a Danish historian about 1134, and Flizastoph, in his "History of London," says that in the twelfth century young men fastened the leg bones of animals under their feet by means of thongs in order to slide along the ice. This statement is confirmed by the pair of bone skates of the period now in the British Museum. It is likely, however, that these early Londoners got the idea from Holland, probably via Lincolnshire, where skates have been used on the frozen fens from very remote times.

Never Leaves Bed.

Though he is in perfect health, Baron Otto, a wealthy Russian nobleman, has not left his bed even for one half hour during the last 10 years. He claims that in order to maintain a good health one must sedulously refrain from taking any kind of physical exercise and that his own excellent health during the last decade is due to the fact that he has not exerted his body in any way.

On the other hand, he maintains that the brain should be kept constantly at work, and therefore he spends much of his time every day consulting with his stewards about the management of his vast estate and making plans and estimates for proposed improvements. He is propped up in bed while he talks to his stewards, and whenever he travels he lies in a bed which has been specially made for him.

BANDIT "CAPTURED" BY CAMERA.

One of the most "celebrated" brigands in Sicily today is Francesco Varasoloni, who has killed outside his predecessor, Musolino, inasmuch as he has eluded the carabinieri and soldiers for 10 years. Like many a member of his "profession," he is devoutly religious. It is said that he will run any risk to get to a certain shrine of the Virgin near Castrovillari, where he considers himself under adequate protection. The above picture was taken under peculiar circumstances by an amateur photographer, who was passing the shrine at the moment the brigand and a female companion arrived. The camera man thought the scene picturesque and so secured a snapshot without the man and woman being aware of the fact, absorbed as they were in prayer.

Shortly afterward, in an endeavor to persuade some peasants in the village of Cammarata to pose for him, he exhibited this picture among others. The villagers at once recognized the man as Varasoloni and the woman as his constant companion. Naturally, the sensation caused was great, and the photographer was obliged to decamp, as the brigand heard of the picture and vowed to wreak vengeance on the snapshotter.

CHICAGO, May 13.—A despatch to the Chronicle from Ames, Iowa, says:

The party of titled German farmers touring America to investigate agricultural conditions have reached Ames and visited the Iowa Agricultural College and Experiment Station. In the evening they were entertained at a banquet by the Ames Commercial Club. Members of the party expressed the feeling that the trip had revealed wonders to them in the way of methods in agriculture which would be introduced in Germany. Among the features mentioned were the practicality of the work done by the college and the value of such tests to farmers.

MONEY.

DO YOU NEED MONEY?
We will lend it to you, provided you have approved city or town property that you will pledge as security.
HOW MUCH YOU CAN GET.
We will lend you half the appraised value of such property, or may be a little more.
HOW YOU CAN PAY IT BACK.
The loan may be repaid at any time and mortgage released.
PAY PART, THEN LESS MONTHLY.
You can repay a part of your loan at any time, provided it is even hundreds of dollars (exclusive of the regular payments), and get a corresponding reduction in the monthly payments.
THE EASIEST WAY TO PAY A DEBT.
"I pay cash" is the boast of many men. But there was a time in their affairs, no doubt, when they could not have done so. A man may not be able to pay $1,000, but he can pay $12.50 a month and not miss the money; and soon the debt is wiped out. There is no better way to pay a debt than in installments.
SUGGESTIONS TO BORROWERS.
1. Don't borrow too much; "enough is as good as a feast"—and is easier repaid.
2. Be sure you will be able to repay the loan.
3. Be honest in filling application blank. Many loans, otherwise good, have been declined because some untrue statement made by the applicant was found to be false. Answer all questions fully.
4. If loan is granted, furnish abstract of title at once. If title is imperfect, clear up discrepancies promptly so that you may receive your money without delay.
5. Always sign a mortgage as the names show in the body of that document. "Charles J. Smith" must not be signed "C. J. Smith," which discrepancies often cause serious delays in consummating loans.
6. Make extra payments whenever you can on your loan in order to pay it off as quickly as possible.
7. If money is desired for the purpose of building a home, it is advanced in the following manner: One quarter of amount borrowed when house is up and under roof, another quarter when first coat of plastering is on, third quarter when house is finished and accepted, and the balance in thirty-five days after acceptance.
8. Enclose with the application one dollar for each one hundred dollars applied for, as a guarantee of good faith. If loan is rejected, money will be returned, less appraisal fee, usually $2.50.
9. Write for application blank to Continental Building & Loan Association. Established in 1889, 301 California street, Dr. Washington Dodge, president; William Corbin, Secretary and general manager. Phone Main 1866, San Francisco, Cal.

VALPARAISO IN DON'T LET TEDDY SEE OUR CITY HALL.
Police, Powerless, Shut Themselves in Barracks.

Dead Line Streets But the Number is Not Known.

NEW YORK, May 13.—"The city is in the possession of the striking dock-laborers," cables the Valparaiso correspondent of the Herald. "One prominent man has been killed, six men are wounded and fifty of the mob are dead and dying."
"A battle has taken place in the streets of the city in which the police were driven to the barracks by the superior forces of the strikers. Greater bloodshed is anticipated."
"The mob has surrounded offices of the Valparaiso and threatens to sack and burn the establishment. Thousands of the strikers are marching on Admiral Montt's private house, swearing vengeance on its occupants and destruction of the building."
"The authorities seem powerless to check the mob and, owing to the bitter feeling against the police, it has been decided to keep them in the barracks rather than further excite the strikers by an ineffectual attempt to quell them."
"Later—The strikers, after setting fire to the quay as well as the offices of the South American Steamship Co., had a number of encounters with the police during which ten persons were killed and 200 injured."
"A detachment of 3,000 troops has been dispatched to Valparaiso to quell the disorder."
"The government has refused all offers to compromise the difficulties and is determined to adopt the sternest measures to restore order."

NO DAMAGES FOR HANGING.

MAN STRUNG UP BY MOB CAN NOT COLLECT DAMAGES.

FREEHOLD, N. J., May 13.—In the suit for $25,000 damages brought by Charles Herbert against former State Senator Terhune and others, whom the plaintiff alleged used of heading a vigilance committee which strung up in an endeavor to make him confess to incendiarism, the jury has brought in a verdict for the defendants. No one denied the hanging, but all denied guilty knowledge.

GREAT NORTHERN TRAINMEN AND BUSINESS MEN IN CONFERENCE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 13.—Representative business men from Minneapolis and St. Paul, to the number of nearly forty, met today the Great Northern Trainmen's Grievance Committee. The meeting had been called by J. W. Cooper, president of the St. Paul Jobbers' Union, who stated that a strike would be destructive to Northwestern business, and that the business men of the Northwest were vitally interested in bringing about an amicable settlement of the differences between the railroad men and employees.
Messrs. Garretson and Newman, representing the Brotherhood organizations, were present and avowed themselves anxious to avoid any action that would work hardship on the employees, while at the same time determined to protect the men they represented. After a preliminary open meeting the doors were closed and the matter was further considered in an executive session.

TOOK ACID AND DIED.

BRUISES ON WOMAN'S REMAINS AND DEATH WILL BE INQUIRED INTO.

NEW YORK, May 13.—A woman about 40 years of age, said to be Mrs. Claude Guernsey of Philadelphia, died today from the effects of carbolic acid with suicidal intent at the Hotel Navarre last night. John B. Walker of this city, who was at the hotel with her, is held by the police as a suspect.
Walker would make no statement, other than that he had met the woman a year ago and knew her as a widow. Bruises were found on her arm.

SEE OUR CITY HALL.

SO WRITES THE SPRING POET OF THE TREASURER'S OFFICE.

"Billy" Matthews, a deputy in the City Treasurer's office and member of the Ellis Lodge, has added the protest of a song writer to his many accomplishments. "Billy" Matthews made a hit as a black faced minstrel and has a voice adapted to coon songs and can do a shake down admirably, but it was not until today that his art for writing songs was known. The inspiration that caused "Billy" Matthews to compose a musical ditty was the effort of Walter Fawcett yesterday to collect money enough to decorate the City Hall building with bunting for Roosevelt's visit. Fawcett is secretary of the Board of Public Works and was instructed to collect subscriptions for the decorating by Mayor Oney. The deputies in the several offices did not come forward very promptly and as a result "Billy" Matthews wrote the following appeal:

GOOD EVENING.
Air: "Mister Dooley."
Good evening, ladies, good evening babies,
Good evening Mr. Mayor, kind friends, and all,
We're here for pleasure, and in a measure,
To raise the "dough" to decorate the hall.
For Teddy's coming, we'll take him for shunning,
And consequently, he must pass our door,
So we are hunting for the price of bunting,
To beautify the "bum old shack" of yore.
It is a pity that this fair city, Cannot afford to drape its citadel,
So kindly "dig up," and we'll "rig up" And try to make the shanty look quite "swell."

ETCHEBERRY HEAD OF DEPARTMENT.

BERKELEY, May 13.—Although only 22 years of age, Richard Etcheberry, a brilliant young graduate of the University of California, has been named the head of a department of the State University of the West.
Etcheberry was graduated from California one year ago, when, owing to his remarkable record, he was made an instructor of civil engineering, in spite of his years.
During the year he has done some remarkable work in that department, and has resigned only to take a position as head of the department of civil engineering at the University of Nevada.
For a man of his age to be the head of a department is remarkable, and there is no other instance of one so young having such an important academic position.

NON-UNION MEN ON MOBILE & OHIO R. R.

MOBILE, Ala., May 13.—A local freight left over the Mobile and Ohio this morning, manned by non-union men, brought to Mobile to take the places of the strikers. During the past two days forty non-union men have been brought here and the majority of them have gone to work.
The railroad officers say they will have all the trains running as usual in a short time. No violence has occurred at Mobile and none has been reported today anywhere on the line.

NEW YORK, S STREET RAILWAY SCANDAL.

PROMINENT MEN INTERESTED IN THE SCANDAL.
There is widespread rational interest in the scandal growing out of the sensational charges made against New York's great Metropolitan Street Railway Company. William M. Amos accuses the management of the company of manipulating the balance sheets of the corporation to the extent of several millions of dollars. President Vreeland, of the Metropolitan, emphatically denies all the charges and threatens a severe retaliatory course on those who have caused the stock to fall temporarily. The hearing of the charges in New York, which is illustrated above, affords an exhibition of rare legal talent and expert accountancy.

STUDYING BIRDS TEN YEARS.

CELEBRATION OF ANNIVERSARY OF COOPER CLUB OF THIS SECTION.

ALAMEDA, May 13.—The Cooper Ornithological Club of California will hold its tenth anniversary in San Francisco Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16, in connection with a special meeting of the American Ornithologists' Union. The gatherings will be held at the Academy of Science. Many noted ornithologists from various parts of the country will take part in the meetings, and the joint program promises to be a very interesting one.
The Academy of Science is to serve a luncheon to the members of the Cooper Club and the scientists from the East on Friday. The Cooper Ornithological Club numbers about 200 members, most of whom will be present at the anniversary exercises. The officers of the club are: President, H. R. Taylor, Alameda; first vice-president, Otto Emerson Hayward; second vice-president, Charles Thompson, Palo Alto; treasurer, Joseph Grinnell, Stanford University; secretary, Professor Charles R. Keyes, University of California.
At the close of the last session on Saturday a number of the members of the American Ornithologists' Union will start on a trip to the Sierra mountains to engage in original research work.

MURDER CAUSE OF DEATH

FLOATING MYSTERY WHICH IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION AT PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, May 13.—The finding of the body of an unknown man floating in the Monongahela river, will probably develop a murder mystery.
A handkerchief had been forced into the man's mouth and there were several wounds on the back of the head which seemed to have been inflicted by a blunt instrument.
The body is that of a man about sixty years of age and well dressed. The body had been in the water not more than twelve hours. The face indicated that it had been dragged along the ground, as it was completely covered with mud and the skin was broken.

JEHUS STRIKE AT FUNERAL

UNDERTAKER FILLS PLACES AS CASKET IS BORNE TO WAITING HEARSE.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 13.—During the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Mary Kamm here the rivers of hanks struck and refused to work because the hearse was given to a non-union man.
The officiating undertakers filed the strikers' places just in time to prevent a scene as the casket was taken to the hearse.

REVOLUTIONIST POWDER.

SALONICA, May 13.—The police have unearthed 700 pounds of dynamite and quantities of gunpowder secreted by the revolutionists.

WANTS MENAGERIE TO MOVE ON.

BOSTON ANIMALS HAVE USED UP F. E. MASON'S STOCK OF PATIENCE.

ALAMEDA, May 13.—Frederick E. Mason of 1110 Everett street appeared before Judge Tappan this morning to make a complaint against the noise and stench made by the animal show in his neighborhood. The menagerie is the Bostock show that took part in the carnival last month. Since then the animals have been living in half a dozen circus cars, stored on the Southern Pacific tracks, near the Everett street crossing. The caretakers say they are awaiting orders from F. E. Bostock in the East, as to where to take the show. They refuse to move, meanwhile, as they have no place to go. They aver no one has complained to them about the menagerie being a public nuisance, and claim that the animals are quiet and clean, causing no trouble, whatever.
Judge Tappan referred Mr. Mason to the District Attorney, as he did not know who was responsible for the animals being there.
